President's Patches

Well here I am in Spokane visiting my granddaughter and her family. My Sister, my Mom and myself drove out. We started from Bismarck on Tuesday and stayed overnight in Miles City and drove to Missoula on Wednesday and stayed over night there. We are finally here. It is so much fun to get reacquainted our little Jackson. So much for the last three days.

Last weekend starting Thursday some of us went on the bus trip sponsored by Faye's Hen House. There were 55 of us on the bus as we headed to Missouri Star Quilt shop. We stopped at the National Quilt Shop Museum in Lincoln, Neb. If anyone gets a chance to go through it, it is well worth the time. Then off again to the Missouri Star Quilt shop. Not only was there one shop there were 5 other shops to see in this little town of Hamilton, MO. I tell you if you were looking for any particular print you would be able to find it there.

I have always claimed that if you are with quilters you would always hear laughter and there was plenty of that. It was an adventure that all of us (old friends and new friends) will always remember.

I will report more on the survey next Month but I can tell you that the most frequently used word was 'friend'.

Keep Smiling
Dianne

- We use styrofoam cups from the church's supply.
- Vicki Bunker and Donna Beal will make sure supplies are available on meeting days. Supplies provided are: coffee, sugar and creamer, cups, small plates, napkins, and forks.
- ALSO: At the end of the morning, please make sure the coffee pot is empty and rinsed according to the directions next to it.

GUILD AFTERNOON WORKSHOP 12:00 following General Meeting

Please come and spend the afternoon sewing with friends!

Are you wondering how they make those great Missouri Star Blocks?

Come to sew and we will show you how to make 3 different blocks using 10" squares.

- Disappearing Hourglass
- Disappearing Pinwheel Churn Dash
- Disappearing Pinwheel Shoofly

Fabrics will be provided and the blocks made will be put into an outreach project!

All you need to bring is your machine and basic sewing and rotary supplies including a 12" ruler. If you own a rotating mat, that comes in handy. Bring a notebook to record cutting information for future use. We know you will want to make these blocks again for yourself!

There is no fee for this workshop! If you can't bring your machine, please be prepared to help with pressing and cutting! We hope to make enough blocks for several quilt tops.

We appreciate all the effort our guild members put into making quilts for our cause!

Old business -

Quilt Show 2015 – Suzanne Gandrud reported that she has four Bright Birches patterns left. Sheets have been put out to enlist volunteers for committees for the show. It was recommended that you “like” and “share” the Quilt Show on Facebook. This would be an advertising tool and would encourage new members.

New Business – Dianne asked us to fill our note cards on the tables. She would like to know why you joined the Guild. Also, a yellow sheet was on the tables and Suzanne Gandrud asked for ideas for recruitment.

Committee Reports -

Education – Bette Olson reported that she is still accepting baby items for OPOP. She reviewed the future programs scheduled through March.

Raffle Quilt – Alice Mattern still has books of tickets.

Quilt Question of the Month – Ginger Trzynka asked how many quilts have been registered for the quilt show. The answer was 26 and Marilynn Hagan was the best guesser.

Special Drawings – Prizes were donated by Quilter's Eden and My Very Own Quilt Store.

Door Prizes – Mary Peterson conducted this and is looking for a replacement.

Announcements -

Alice Mattern is taking registrations for the next retreat in Mahanomen. The form was in the last newsletter.

Quilt Show Notes

Cindy Erickson

A woman after my own heart! In becoming familiar with this year's Quilt Show judge and lecturer, the first lines I read were, "Cindy began sewing in Jr. High Home Economics, making her own clothes and crafts." YES! As a Home Economics (now called Family & Consumer Sciences) teacher who has loved to teach sewing, I liked Cindy immediately! She began quilting when she picked up a rotary cutter in 1985 and has rarely put it down since then! Can you imagine the number of quilts she's made in 40 years? We don't have to! Cindy will be showing quilts representative of her quilting journey on Friday, October 16. I love it when former Home Ec students show me the projects they made in my class and still treasure – I'll consider Cindy to be another former student! See you at the lecture!

Board Meeting Minutes

NSQG Board Meeting Agenda
Sept. 15, 2015
2650 26th Ave S. at 7 PM

Members present: Dianne Sattler, Leslee Smart, Anna Picklo, Judi Loer, MaryAnn Hentschell, Suzanne Gandrud. Guests: Bette Olson and Janet Gregory and Sandy Gregory.

The August minutes were approved as published.

Treasurer's Report – Anna Picklo reported a balance of $7,898.33 in the general fund and a balance of $17,568.76 in the Long Range Educational Planning fund with a grand total of $25,467.09 as of Sept. 15, 2015.

MaryAnn Hentschell made a motion to approve the report with a second by Suzanne Gandrud. Motion approved.

Old Business:

Audit – Janet Gregory gave a report on the audit conducted on our records. A check to Optimal Pregnancy Outcome Center from a year ago had not been cashed. Payment will be stopped on this check and a new one will be issued. Suggestions were made to improve the bookkeeping and Anna will implement them. Suzanne Gandrud made a motion to reissue the check for $112.14 and stop payment on the uncashed check with a second by Leslee Smart. Motion carried.

Quilt Show 2015 – Oct. 16-18, 2015 Suzanne Gandrud reported that things are going smoothly and everything is on schedule. The early quilt entry deadline is September 18. Various committee chairs explained what the volunteer duties are for their areas.

Quilts and Coffee – Communication was received from Doug Leko of Antler Quilting regarding arrangements in case of a snow storm. Arrangements will be made with him. We are still in need of one or two members to chair Quilts and Coffee for this program to continue.

New Business:

Recruitment – The information gathered in September was reviewed. It was agreed that a task force would be developed to implement some of the ideas to improve membership. Ideas will be solicited again in October.

Meeting Location – Dianne Sattler and Judi Loer met with Our Saviors Lutheran in E. Grand Forks. They toured the meeting room area and kitchen area. It is a great facility and the parking is more than ample. They will charge $100 which is what we pay now. Judi Loer made a motion to recommend this facility as a meeting place with a second by Anna Picklo. Motion carried. It will tentatively start in Jan. 2016. Board members will bring this to the General meeting in October for discussion and vote.

Member at Large – Judi Loer brought up the issue of no treats at the Quilts and Coffee and we will return to them with the next coffee.

Education Committee – Bette Olson said that 249 items were made for OPOP. She has programs lined up through March 2016.

The next regular meeting will be Oct. 3, 2015 at the University Lutheran Church.

The next board meeting will be held Oct. 27, 2015 at 2650 26th Ave. S. at 7 PM.

The meeting was adjourned with no objections.

Respectfully submitted,

Leslee Smart

Secret Quilter

Forms for 2016 secret quilter will be available at the November meeting. We will reveal secret quilter at the December meeting and start the new secret quilters in January.

Quilt Show Notes

Thanks to all who have sent in quilt entries and lecture registration forms early! It sure makes it easier when we spread the work out over a longer period of time instead of all at the last minute.

Remember that Saturday, October 3 is the final quilt entry deadline and the last day for advance admission and lecture registration. Lecture tickets will be available at the door for $12 and remember that entry to lectures is only through the show.

We will have 80 names in a drawing for two $50 gift certificates to a vendor of choice at the quilt show! Way better odds than any lottery! We will draw during the guild meeting and you do not need to be present to win.

Don't forget to finish up your silent auction project and send in the form so Sandy Mesa and Gail Nunes know what to expect.

Finish up that challenge quilt, there's still time. Finish up that t-shirt quilt. Get those bindings stitched down. :)

Check your calendar for times you'll be available to volunteer and fill up those last few volunteer slots when the various committee chairs puts out sign up forms at the guild meeting.

Only 24 days until show time! See you at Quilting on the Red!!

Recruitment Ideas

Thank you for the recruitment and event ideas that were generated at the September meeting. We will do this again in October so as you think of ideas, make sure and jot them down! In November the board will begin work on getting a task force together to review all of the ideas, fine tune a few into good events or programs and work on a plan for implementation.

Here are just a few of the ideas that were submitted:

- Modern quilt bed turning with wine
- Start more satellite groups
- Have membership forms at all events
- Adopt a new member
- More use of social media like Facebook and Instagram
- Project runway type of event
- Occasional change in day and time for regular meetings
- Speak to New American sewing classes

A Note from the Editor

Fall is an exciting time, especially in the guild. You could feel the energy at the September general meeting. People were chatting from the time they came in and the room was in a buzz. There was just excitement and enthusiasm in the air.

Meeting at the EGF Senior Center made an interesting change. We get used to sitting at the same table with the same people (of course they are friends so that's why we do it). We might have sat at the same table as our friends, but it was most likely with a different view of the meeting. While our numbers weren't up from most months, it seemed like more of us were there. Perhaps it was the space.

October will have us discussing whether we continue to meet at University Lutheran or relocate. University Lutheran has been a great place to come every month and they've been very accommodating to us; but we've been feeling cramped at times as well. What to do, what to do?

Whatever the decision, we'll adjust and either learn ways to make the room work better or we'll adapt to new surroundings. I think discussion is always good whether it goes the way we want or not, and our club has always been great about accepting what the majority decides.

Are you working on your Quilt Show items? Time is running short. Somehow we always find a way to finish, even if it's the 11th hour. I hope everyone can find a spot to volunteer, the club definitely needs everyone's help to put on a great show and the show will be great!

Recipe Corner

Walnut-Date Snack Bars
Mary Peterson

1 pkg. yellow cake mix
¾ cup packed light brown sugar
¾ cup margarine or butter, melted
2 eggs
2 cups chopped dates (I use a Dole pouch of chopped dates...)
2 cups chopped walnuts

Combine cake mix and brown sugar – blend well. Add margarine and eggs – then beat 2 minutes at medium speed. In a medium bowl, combine dates and nuts – mix well. Stir the date mixture into the cake batter – blend well. Batter will be stiff! Spread in a greased 9 X 13 pan. Bake 35-45 minutes at 350 degrees. Cool 10 minutes and run a table knife along the edges to loosen... (I don't always do this). Let cool an hour... cut into bars.

It's one of my favorite bars.....packs well, ships well, carries to meetings well, almost tastes like breakfast!

NSQG Outreach Information

Our Purpose: Create quilts to be given to foster care children in our surrounding area. They are distributed through NEHS. Occasional outreach projects are done for Optimum Pregnancy Outcome, Quilts of Valor, and the Fire Department for distribution to fire victims' families in our area.

We count on these donations from our membership:

- Time - work on projects on your own, with friends, or through workshops and kits offered by the guild
Machine quilting
Tying
Binding
- Quilts - we accept tops and finished quilts of all sizes
Must be cotton fabric, clean and free of stains or pet hair
- Fabric - Larger pieces that could be used for backings if donating smaller pieces we would prefer these cuts:
½ yard cuts or larger, fat quarters, 2 ½" strips, 5" squares, 10" squares
Panels
Any size cuts of brights or kid prints are especially appreciated
- Batting - we prefer a low loft batting (could be pieced together from left over scraps from larger projects.)

NSQG offers at least three opportunities throughout the year to help with outreach. March and October-technique/project workshop, December-tying quilts.

A designated outreach table is set up at meetings. Feel free throughout the year to assemble quilt tops or completed quilts and drop them off at our guild meetings. Finished quilts are stored at Quilter's Eden. They can be dropped off there also.

Kits are available at guild meetings for members to take home and work on at their leisure-no time restrictions, just a reminder that the purpose is for outreach.

December Meeting is traditionally the time we make a donation to NEHS. Our yearly goal would be 100+ completed quilts. This would mean if each member could donate at least one quilt per year, we would easily reach that number. We know that many of you do 3 or more donations per year. We thank our satellite groups that have gathered to help sort donations, assemble kits, etc. We especially appreciate the long armers in our guild for their generous contribution of quilting.

We often hear that someone donated a quilt and never saw it again. Have no fear! They all make it to someone that is in need of comfort. Sometimes, they go out as quick as we receive them. Sometimes, it may take a while before it gets to the completion point of distribution.

NEHS has requested that rather than donating all of our finished quilts at one time, that we break it down into several donations per year. This would alleviate them and us from having to store so many for so long.

If you donate a quilt, please share it during show and tell! Everyone would love to see it and it will inspire others to contribute to the cause!

NSQG thanks you all for your generous donation of time and talent! Know that you have warmed someone's heart and home!
