V_X

Moving House Checklist and Tips

One Month to Moving Day

Over the month before your move, follow this moving checklist:

•	If you're renting, give the landlord (or agent) notice in	DIY	moving packing tips:
	writing and book a final inspection date so you can recoup any bond paid		lecide which belongings you'll pack and which to leave for our removalist
•	Finalise and 'lock-in' your moving date (and settlement times if relevant) with your removalist		flost people run out of packing material (e.g. boxes, bubble grap, tape, marker pens, small and large zip-lock bags)
•	Request time off-work for moving day, and perhaps the day prior as well	S0 UI	o always buy more than you think you'll need to avoid ntimely shopping trips or making do (Kent has a big range of
•	List any precious, special or fragile items that need special handling during the move. Advise your removalist in case special protective packing or crating is needed. (Kent	• U	nexpensive, high quality packing supplies) Ise clean, white paper (e.g. 'butcher's paper') for packing as ewspaper will leave stains professionally move large objects like pianos or pool tables and custom wrap or build protective crates if required.)		lumber and label every moving box clearly, listing its ontents, and create a colour code system to designate room
•	Arrange insurance for your belongings in case of loss or damage during transit (existing contents insurance is	de	estination for each box (use a different colour of marker or abel for each room)
	unlikely to cover all aspects of your move - Kent offers several cost-effective insurance options)		repare a separate inventory list detailing box numbers nd contents
•	Start packing because this is the most time-consuming part of your move and will take longer than you think. Refer to our Moving House Packing Tips if choosing to		tart by packing the belongings you use least (e.g. books, CD/VDs, items stored in the roof space or garage)
	pack yourself. Alternatively, using your removalist's professional packing service will save time and trouble.		ack lighter items in bigger boxes and heavier items in smaller oxes
	(Time and cost-effective Kent packers will look after all or part of your packing and unpacking)		ionsolidate smaller objects that could go missing in a arger box
•	Check manufacturer's moving instructions for large appliances like washing machines and fridges (to avoid		ave on space by using vacuum seal bags for out-of-season lothing damage, most front loaders require transit bolts fitted and ice makers should be drained)	la	ack things inside of awkwardly shaped items (e.g. baskets, aundry bins, suitcases) then pack these in larger boxes to
•	Create a change of address checklist, including all important contacts, like the electoral commission, tax office, roads authority, bank, insurance, accountant, lawyer, your employer	• D	ecure and stack them more efficiently when moving ismantle furniture that comes apart easily that you and so on If you have pets, change their council registration details	m	on't need before your move (Kent professional ancillary noving services include the disassembly/reassembly of our furniture)
•	Collect all the keys to your current home, including any spares held by family members or friends		lace any removable hardware (e.g. screws, bolts) from ismantled furniture and other items in a small clear plastic	Ш
•	Gas bottles and air cylinders should be certified empty, with valves open, and safely dispose of dangerous materials such	ba	ag or container. Tape bags to larger pieces or safely secure our bag or container elsewhere as flammable liquids or paints (see our Moving House Do's and Don'ts for more information)		or additional advice, check out our separate est packing tips list.

