INSTRUCTIONS

1. Inapplicable words or statements may be stricken, but all information indicated in the form must be given. The nature and extent of the claim should be stated in the spaces provided in sufficient detail to advise the personal representative of the estate of the full particulars in order that the validity of the claim may be determined.
2. An original and one copy of this claim must be submitted to the Clerk of the Court at the time of filing.

WARNING TO CLAIMANTS

The personal representative of the estate or any party interested in the estate has the right to object to any claim. If an objection is filed, a law suit in a court of competent jurisdiction must be filed within the time allowed by law, or this claim will be barred. See §733.702, Florida Statutes.

Even if no objection is filed, a claim will be barred at the expiration of one (1) year from the date the claim is filed if the claim has not been paid, settled, or otherwise disposed of, and no proceeding is then pending for the enforcement of compulsory payment of it. See §733.710, Florida Statutes.
