Writing with iPads

Supporting all stages of writing for the Primary iPad Classroom

The VPA is offering this full-day workshop looks specifically at all aspects of writing in an iPad classroom. Using a small suite of apps to engage students from P–6 in the writing process, participants will explore apps and tools that support spelling, vocabulary, punctuation, drafting, publishing, collaboration, feedback and reflection.

Please bring along a couple of samples of student work (written) in draft form and a fully charged iPad with the required apps pre-loaded (apps list to be confirmed).

This workshop is suitable for teachers who manage either 1:1 or shared iPads.

This workshop will be facilitated by Phill Cristofaro. Phill has more than 20 years' experience as a classroom teacher and more than ten as a Leading Teacher. He is an Apple Distinguished Educator and member of the Apple Consultant's Network - trained to deliver Apple Professional Development (APD). In 2007, Phill was a finalist in the Herald Sun Teacher of the Year Awards and in 2005 was a finalist in the Outstanding Primary Teacher category of the Education Excellence Awards (Victoria, Australia). Phill has worked as an eLearning consultant for the Western Metropolitan Region. He currently works at Keilor Views PS as an eLearning Coach.

Please note that participants must bring an iPad to the session
