Adventure is out there...

Southwestern College/Rotary Leadership Camp

June 4 - June 8, 2011

Leadership in Action

Some people may define a leader as one who mediates and is in charge of a group or activity. However, a true leader is a servant first.

This year's SC/Rotary Leadership Camp theme, Adventure is out there, encompasses the responsibility of being a servant leader. The camp will be June 4-June 8, 2011, on the Southwestern College campus.

Through the camp you will learn about yourself and others, about motivation and teamwork. You will discover that you can't be a leader without being a servant first.

Call us at Southwestern College, or check with a local Rotary Club member, to find out how you can join the adventure with Leadership Southwestern.

"The roots of true achievement lie in the will to become the best that you can become." —Harold Taylor

What will we do?

The week will be filled with both physical and mental leadership-building and motivational activities.

- You'll work with other students in projects that will give you experience in teamwork, from a ropes course to a work project.
- You'll talk about career planning and about setting goals.
- You'll set goals to help make a difference in your school.
- And we'll make sure you have plenty of fun. Special events: dodgeball, a cookout, swimming, ice cream, movie night and more!

Check out our Web site for last year's pictures and more info at www.sckans.edu/leadership. Click on Rotary camp button.

What does it cost?

The week of camp, including housing and expenses, costs $275. Scholarships, which may cover the full cost of the camp, are available through local Rotary clubs.

Deadline for sign-up is Friday, May 20, 2011. Cancellation between May 21 and May 23 will result in half refund of camp fees; no refunds after Tuesday, May 24.

How do I sign up?

Fill out the form below and take it to a local Rotarian. If you don't know anyone from a Rotary Club or call us here at Southwestern College, (800) 846-1543, ext. 6393, and we'll put you in touch with someone.
