OVER

About the Juror: Elizabeth Wright-Atkins

Elizabeth was born and raised in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She graduated from Oklahoma State University, and came to Denver, Colorado in 1963. She taught school in Jefferson County Colorado Public Schools for 32 years. She pursued her formal art training at the Colorado Institute of Art.

Elizabeth is a devout animal lover, and that has greatly influenced her art work. Her paintings combine water color, acrylic, and oil base paint pens. She also creates gourd sculptures and wood burned pieces of various Colorado animals. She feels that her use of color, line work, and design skills are her greatest artistic strengths.

Elizabeth is very proud to be a member of The Majestic Gallery in Idaho Springs, and feels that the work of many of Colorado's finest artists can be found in that gallery.
