

volunteer (vol en tir) n.

Someone who gives of their time, energy, brainpower, talent, and spirit (i.e. the very best of themselves!) to help make a difference in the world.

The Greater Grand Rapids USBC is looking for members who would like to assist with our tournaments, help with Ways and Means fund raising, or serve as a center representative. We are currently compiling a list of individuals who want to be involved! If you will provide your time, we will provide the training and the FUN!
