Important Notice Read Carefully

Lodging

Please be mindful that when you register to attend Blue Mountain Christian Retreat, your name will be counted immediately for lodging, therefore, you will be expected to attend. Since the number of rooms that are assigned to us are based on the total number that we give Blue Mountain based solely from the number of people who sign up.

In the past, we were allowed to let people have a room by themselves, however, Blue Mountain has changed this policy so, we are unable to extend single room courtesy. Unless there is medical reason whereby you absolutely cannot share a room with someone else. When assigning roommates age and other factors are taken into consideration as much as possible. If you have roomed with someone in the past and would like to be with the same person, please let us know at the time of registration and we will be more than happy to reassign you with that person or persons.

Cancellations

In the event of extenuating circumstances you are unable to attend the retreat on scheduled date, please notify the staff as soon as possible. However, if we are already at the retreat, please call Blue Mountain at (570) 386-2154 and leave a message with their office. Please do not give messages to TLFC members, it is imperative that you notify TLFC staff or Deaconess Sharon Justice regarding cancellation and to avoid being charged a cancellation fee.

Meals

The same applies for meals as noted above. You will be asked at the time of registration if you will be eating meals. Be honest with us, as it is important for us to give Blue Mountain an accurate count. When you tell us you will be eating with us, it will be counted and given to Blue Mountain. However, when you don't show the Church will be charged for the meal. We want to be good stewards in handling God's money and not wasteful.

We thank you in advance for your cooperation concerning these matters and adhering to them.
