EAST COUNTY PREGNANCY CARE CENTER BABY SHOWER JUNE 21-22, 2014

One of the ministries of the Life and Justice Committee is the East County Pregnancy Care Center (ECPCC). In addition to the monthly donations, the committee annually hosts a Baby Shower to support the Center in their life-affirming mission. The Center provides many services such as counseling, childbirth education, and parenting classes to name a few. Ultrasounds and other medical services are available to women who seek these services at the Clinic.

The ECPCC is able to provide these services through generous donations and volunteers. The following are items that the Center needs to help their clients:

- ❖ Maternity clothes- sizes large and x-large
- ❖ Summer T-shirts
- ❖ Capri length pants for moms to be
- ❖ Baby clothes sizes 6 to 24 months
- ❖ Diapers size 2, 3 and larger
- ❖ Smaller packages of wipes
- ❖ Diaper bags
- ❖ Baby toiletries such as shampoo, bath lotion, diaper rash ointment

Please consider a monetary donation or any of the above items and bring them to the entrance at the front of the church after each Mass this weekend, June 21 and 22. Also, Baby Bottles for Change (and currency) will be available.

This ministry has been very well supported by our parish and we are very grateful for your help and support.

Rose Sardisco, Life & Justice Committee

The Mission of Queen of Angels Parish is to:

- ❖ Grow in our relationship with God Through Jesus Christ.
- ❖ Strengthen our faith by living and teaching the Gospel.
- ❖ Serve God's people in our parish, our community and our world.

Please call the parish office at 445.2145 for information and sign-up.

Summer Stewardship This is the time of year when many families are on vacation. A good way to teach children about the importance of Mass attendance is to build it in even on vacation. It can be fun and interesting to seek out a parish in another town to attend Mass in another Catholic faith community. At the same time, it is important to remember that the stewardship way of living the Christian life is to decide in advance how much of our treasure we share with our own parish community. Even though many families are away for some portion of the summer, our bills do not stop. For this reason, I hope that you will remember to use your envelopes in support of our parish even when you are on vacation. One of the advantages of our envelope system is the convenience of being able to return them by mail.

CORPUS CHRISTI, THE FEAST OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

BY KRISTI SCHERBAUM, DCM

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven; if any one eats of this bread, he will live forever;...he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life and... abides in me, and I in him"
John 6:51, 54, 56

It is not man that causes the things offered to become the Body and Blood of Christ, but he who was crucified for us, Christ himself. The priest, in the role of Christ, pronounces these words, but their power and grace are God's. This is my body, he says. This word transforms the things offered.
St. John Chrysostom

Imagine that you are waiting in a line, waiting to see Jesus. In a few minutes, He will be directly in front of you. How would you approach him? With indifference, casually, with reverence?

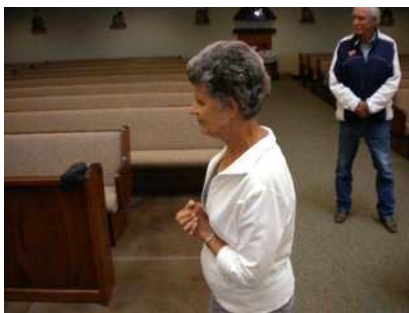

As Catholics, we believe in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharistic species. This sets us apart from all other faiths. Through the words and actions of the priest and the power of the Holy Spirit, ordinary bread and wine are transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ.

We should approach the Eucharistic table as we would approach Jesus, in person, with reverence, dignity, and awe. We are about to receive Christ into our bodies and souls. We should be aware that our posture and gestures can reflect how important we believe the action of receiving Communion is.

As we celebrate the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ today, let us reflect and remind ourselves of how to properly prepare to receive Jesus in the Eucharist, and for those who have yet to receive this sacrament or are not prepared, how to receive a blessing.

To receive a blessing: Process in line to the altar with your arms crossed over your chest. Your hands should be resting on the front of your shoulders. This lets the priest or Eucharistic Minister know that you are requesting a blessing from him or her, and not Holy Communion. When the person in front of you is receiving, respectfully bow, and then step up to the priest or Eucharistic Minister to receive your blessing. Prayerfully return to your seat in a quiet manner.

To receive Holy Communion: Process in line to the altar with your hands folded prayerfully. As the person in front of you is receiving, respectfully bow, and then step up to the priest or Eucharistic Minister, with your hands ready to receive the Host.

Children who are receiving the Eucharist, please hold your hands raised to just below shoulder level, not held at waist level.

The priest or minister will say, "The Body of Christ." Your response of "Amen." is the only correct response. You are stating that you believe in the Real Presence of Christ.

Once you have received Holy Communion, step to the side and consume the host. Many people make the Sign of the Cross at this time, but it is not a requirement. If you are not receiving the Precious Blood, return to your seat quietly.

To receive the Precious Blood of Christ: Approach the minister in the same manner as above. After bowing, the minister will say, "The Blood of Christ" and again the only correct response is "Amen." Receive the cup from the minister, with both hands, and consume a small amount. Return the cup to the minister and again, many people make the Sign of the Cross, but it is not a requirement. Return to your seat in a quiet manner.

In the pew, one should pray and continue to kneel, if possible, and sit back when the priest has placed the Blessed Sacrament in the tabernacle and returned to his seat.
