FAMILY THEATRE SERIES SUBSCRIPTION ORDER

The Family Theatre Series brings professional touring children's productions to the Eisemann Center with a lineup of shows that promises to excite, entertain, educate and amaze our youngest patrons. All Family Theatre Series performances will take place in the Hill Performance Hall. The Eisemann Center and the Family Theatre Series will strive to provide young people, many for the very first time, with the unforgettable opportunity to experience the transporting power of outstanding theatre that entertains, stimulates, and educates; and to enhance "character education" among young people by presenting theatre that fosters sound moral development, encourages self-expression, ignites the desire to read, and advances their development as productive members of our community. The Family Theatre Series is sponsored by Friends of the Richardson Library.
