Infinite Reach March Break Camp

The Infinite Reach March Break Camp is designed to provide Métis high school students with an introduction and connection to the Métis Nation within Ontario. Students will learn about Métis history and culture. The camp seeks to gather Métis high school students who want to learn more about the opportunities available to them in postsecondary education. Students selected to attend the camp will be provided with information on various programs and disciplines in college and university and which future jobs are in demand. Students will also have the opportunity to speak with Infinite Reach Facilitators who are attending postsecondary institutions who will share their experiences.
