

APPLICATION FOR 3RD PARTY BURSARIES CONTROLLED BY UJ

(EXCLUDING, MERIT BURSARIES, SPORT-, CULTURAL- AND NRF BURSARIES)

UNDERGRADUATE AND POSTGRADUATE STUDIES

2014

IMPORTANT

The instructions below must be carefully read and applied. Applicants please note that no pages must be removed from this application form.

- 1. Prospective students must familiarize themselves with the rules and regulations of the University regarding bursaries.
- 2. Please fully complete the enclosed form. Incomplete forms will be returned to you for further completion, which may result in your application reaching the University too late for consideration.
- 3. It is expected from prospective first year students who already passed the matriculation examination, to attach a copy of their matriculation results (Statement of symbols).
- 4. The closing date for applications is 15 November of every year in respect of bursaries for the following year of study.
- 5. Bursaries are awarded for one year of study only and application must be made annually for renewal in the prescribed manner.
- 6. Students from other Universities are expected to attach a copy of their latest academic record.
- 7. Applicants complete only one application form and send it to:
- 8. It is imperative that all applications must include a UJ student number, failure to do so will result in your application being unsuccessful.
