FORUM OVERVIEW

With a realization that there has been quite a significant increase with local and international institutional investors seeking investment opportunities in Africa, MNCapital Group and its United Kingdom-based partner, Africonomie embarked on a campaign that seeks to promote institutional funds investment as an alternative growth strategy in Africa.

The Annual Africa Investment Funds & Asset Management (AIFAM) Forum, arguably the most comprehensive and the biggest pension funds investment forum in Africa, successfully inaugurated in Johannesburg, South Africa, on the 23rd and 24th July 2013 at the Johannesburg Stock Exchange (JSE). It brought together key industry players who participated as speakers at this event representing such companies as; Government Employees Pension Fund (GEPF), AfricaSif.org, International Monetary Fund (IMF), African Alliance, Public Service Pension Fund - Zambia, Duet Group, Bigen Africa Services, African Development Bank, The Abraaj Group, Silk Invest, 27 Four Investment Managers, Alexander Forbes, Werksman Attorneys, Unique Venture Capital Management Company, Gauteng Partnership Fund, Sanlam Properties, Novare Investment, Agosto & Co., Standard & Poor's, African Private Equity & Venture Capital Association (AVCA), Principles for Responsible Investment (PRI), Sustainable Returns for Pensions and Society, Fitch Ratings, Environmental Business Strategies, Absa Asset Management, Today's Trustee, Bowman Gilfillan Africa Group, Bryanston Resources UK, and also independent consultants.

The 2nd AIFAM Forum will be held at the Villa Rosa Kempinski Hotel, Nairobi, Kenya on the 30th and 31st July 2014. It is expected to bring together an exclusive delegation of about 200 key players in the industry to discuss, among other issues, investment opportunities available in Africa.
