General information

Chapter 576 of the Laws of 1994 allows for the formation of limited liability companies (LLCs) and limited liability partnerships (LLPs) in New York State (domestic LLCs or LLPs). In addition, recognition is given under New York State law for LLCs and LLPs formed under the laws of other states (foreign LLCs and LLPs).

Both domestic LLCs and LLPs are required to register with the New York State Department of State. In addition, foreign LLCs and LLPs that wish to carry on or conduct business or activities in New York State must also register with the Department of State. Taxpayers who have questions concerning the registration process should write to the New York State Department of State, 41 State Street, Albany NY 12231-0001, or call (518) 473-2492. Taxpayers who have questions concerning the New York tax treatment of LLCs and LLPs and payment of the filing fee should contact the Tax Department (see Need help? on the back page).

Effective August 8, 1995, certain investment companies that are established and regulated under Article 12 of the New York State Banking Law are able to organize themselves as limited liability investment companies (LLICs). The LLIC option is available only to Article 12 investment companies that serve as holding companies for foreign banking operations. Also, effective July 21, 1997, certain trust companies that are established and regulated under section 102-A of the New York State Banking Law are able to organize themselves as limited liability trust companies (LLTCs). The LLTC option is available only to Article 3 trust companies that do not receive deposits from the general public and are exempt from obtaining insurance of deposits and share accounts. Throughout these instructions, the term limited liability company includes a limited liability investment company and a limited liability trust company.

New York tax treatment of LLCs and LLPs

An LLC or an LLP may be treated as a partnership or a corporation for federal income tax purposes. New York State law conforms to this federal treatment. Accordingly, an LLC or an LLP that is treated as a corporation for federal purposes must file a New York State corporation franchise tax return.

An LLC or an LLP that is treated as a partnership for federal purposes must, if it meets the requirements (see Form IT-204-I), file a New York State partnership return using Form IT-204, Partnership Return. Any LLC or LLP required to file Form IT-204 must also complete and file Form IT-204-LL. A single-member LLC is not treated as a partnership for federal purposes. Therefore, it is not subject to the filing fee and is not required to file Form IT-204 or Form IT-204-LL.

Filing fee

Every domestic or foreign LLC or LLP that is required to file a New York State partnership return and that has any income, gain, loss or deduction from New York sources must pay a New York State filing fee. The amount of the filing fee is $50 multiplied by the total number of members or partners in the LLC or LLP. However, the fee cannot be less than $325 or more than $10,000.

There is no proration of the filing fee if the LLC or LLP has a short tax year for federal tax purposes.

Who must file

This form must be filed by every limited liability company, limited liability investment company, limited liability trust company, or limited liability partnership that is required to file Form IT-204, Partnership Return. It is used as a means of remitting the state filing fee or to indicate why the LLC or LLP does not owe a fee for the current tax year.

When to file

An LLC or LLP that is not requesting an extension of time to file Form IT-204 must attach this form to the front of Form IT-204 when it is filed. For calendar year 2000, the filing deadline is April 16, 2001. (If you are required to file your 2000 federal return at the IRS Service Center in Andover, Massachusetts, the deadline to file your New York State return is April 17, 2001.) A full remittance of the filing fee due must be attached to the form and filed by the original due date of your return. If the LLC/LLP is requesting an extension of time to file, see Extension below.

Note: This form, together with Form IT-204, constitutes the complete partnership return. Failure to file either or both form(s) by the due date may result in the imposition of penalties for failure to timely file a partnership return.

Extension

An LLC or LLP that is requesting an extension of time to file Form IT-204 must complete and attach this form to the back of Form IT-370-PF, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File for Partnerships and Fiduciaries. The LLC or LLP must include with the extension request a full remittance of any filing fee due. There is no extension of time for payment of the filing fee. If the LLC or LLP fails to pay the full amount of filing fee with its extension request, it must pay interest and a late payment penalty of ½% per month, up to a maximum of 25% on the amount of fee not paid. There is no extension of time to file Form IT-204-LL or to pay the annual fee.
