HOME BUDGETING

What is a budget?

A budget is a savings and spending plan. It is a step-by-step plan for meeting expenses in a given period of time.

Why Budget?

Knowing what your income and expenses are every month will help you take control of your financial situation.

How will budgeting help you take control of your financial situation?

- A budget will reduce anxiety.
- A budget will give you a sense of control over your money.

To complete a budget, you must first know what you spend your money on daily. The best way to track your spending is to keep a “Daily Spending Diary”. Write down everything that you spend your money on for one month. See example of a “Daily Spending Diary” on next page.

My Daily Spending Diary

Items Purchased	Daily Total
Sunday
Monday

Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday

Total Amount Spent This Week $ _____

Once you know what you spend your money on monthly, it is time to prepare a budget. Let's review the items listed on this budget.

Housing

- Mortgage/rent should not exceed 28% of your gross monthly income. Gross income is the amount shown on your check stub prior to taxes and other deductions.

For example, you monthly gross income is $3,000. You would multiply $$3,000 \times 28\% = \840.00 .

- 2nd Mortgage
- Association Fees
- Land or lot Payment
- Property Tax (if not escrowed) If not included with mortgage divide total amount mount by 12 to get the yearly average.)

- Electric – I suggest that you get on the budget plan if it is available in your area.

- Personal Items/Toiletries
- Barber/Beauty Shop
- Allowance for Children
- Child care
- Child support – (if not payroll deducted)
- Alimony

- Tobacco/Alcohol
- Clothing
- Dry Cleanings/Laundry

Medical

- Doctors Visits (yearly Avg.) – To get the yearly average, total cost of visit for the year and divide by 12 months.
- Medication (monthly)
- Dentist (yearly average)

Insurance

- Life Insurance (if not payroll deducted)
- Health (if not payroll deducted)

Education

- Tuition/School Fees

- Other/credit card debts/payday loans.

Summary

Monthly Gross Income _____

Monthly Net Income _____

Total Expenses _____ (subtract from Net income)

Questions

- 1. Do you have a negative cash-flow? If the answer is yes, then consider the following options to help balance the budget.
 - Take a lunch from home.
 - Cut off cable or down grade cable.
 - Car pool
 - Get a part-time job if possible.

- 2. Do you have a positive cash-flow? If the answer is yes, then consider the following options.
 - Place the extra income in your savings/emergency funds.
 - Place more money in retirement plan.

BUDGETING TOOL

Monthly Payment Schedule

In conclusion, a budget is a road map to give you a snap shot of where you are financially. Always review your budget prior to taking on additional debt. Establish an emergency savings fund as a number one priority because you never know when you will need it. As a rule of thumb, save at least three to six months of your monthly net income.

Tools For Budgeting

Monthly Payment Schedule

Use different colored ink for income and expenses (example: black for income and red for expenses).
List ALL bills, even the little ones.
Where applicable keep track of remaining balance due.

Income	Bills/Expenses	Due Date	Amt. Due	Amt. Paid	Remaining Bal.
