Remarks

Eligible individuals may apply at any time between February 1 and March 31. Review of applications will take place during the month of April. Successful applicants will be notified no later than May 13, 2013. Scholarship support in one grant cycle (fiscal year beginning September 1 and ending August 31) does not guarantee support in subsequent years.

Applicants should understand that a decision by the Mary Jo Farr Memorial Scholarship Review Committee to decline funding does not necessarily mean that they disapprove of the educational request or that they do not recognize its merit or need. It is the policy of the West Central Iowa Healthcare Foundation not to provide applicants, successful or otherwise, the reasons why a scholarship was approved or declined.

Scholarship grantees will forward their transcripts to the Foundation after successful completion of their first term following the award. After the Foundation receives the transcript, a check will be award and paid directly to the grantee.

The Foundation Director is available daily, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., to answer any questions you may have about the Mary Jo Farr Memorial Scholarship process.
