The doctors and staff of Nevada Retina Associates welcome you as a new patient. Our job is to serve your vision needs in a professional and caring manner.

In compliance with federal regulations, a notice of privacy practices will be available to you in our office. This notice informs you of the efforts we take to protect patient confidentiality. In order to maintain an efficient check-in process, we ask that you have the following items upon your arrival:

- 1 | New patient information sheet
- 2 | Medical questionnaire (pink sheet)
- 3 | List of medications you are currently taking
- 4 | Insurance card(s)
- 5 | Drivers' license or photo I.D.
- 6 | Co-pay or deductible

Your examination will require dilation of your eyes unless otherwise notified. Many times, other diagnostic tests are performed during your visit, so please plan to spend at least two to four hours in our office. If you are not comfortable driving after your eyes have been dilated, please make arrangements to have someone accompany you or arrange for alternate transportation.

As a courtesy to you, we will bill your insurance. It is the patient's responsibility to determine whether or not your insurance carrier is contracted with our office. It is our policy to collect co-pays and/or co-insurance at the time of each visit. Our billing coordinator or office manager would be happy to assist you with any questions regarding our billing procedures.

If you have any other questions, concerns, or desire further information, please do not hesitate to contact us.
