PREPARING FOR WORSHIP...

At an ordination service several years ago, the minister who gave the ordination sermon urged the one who was being ordained to “Remember Dorothy.” No one knew what he was talking about, including the one being ordained. The minister told a story about a woman who was in nursing school. One day the Professor came in and said those seven words students hate to hear, “We’re going to have a pop quiz.” She made it through the quiz, until she got to the last question. It read, “What is the name of the woman who cleans the school?” She thought she read it wrong! She had seen an older lady who cleaned, but how was she supposed to know her name? After the quiz, one student asked, “Is that last question going to count?” “Yes, it’s going to count. You’re going to meet a lot of people when you get out in the field of medicine. You may be tempted to treat them as diseases instead of as people. But each one is important and each one has a name. And by the way, her name is Dorothy.” There are a lot of Dorothy’s out there and in here. If we are going to fulfill God’s purposes as God’s servants (which is what a deacon and all Christians are supposed to be), we need to love people which requires at least a little bit of knowledge about who our members are and what their needs are. The more we know them, the more we can love them. I challenge our new elected and newly ordained deacons to get to know our folks better so that they can be the best they can be. And I challenge the rest of us to do the same. Let’s get to know each other better and be of service to each other.
