

Global Journeys

London & Oxford
 July is one of the warmest and sunniest months of the year for these notoriously cool and rainy cities! The temperature will average around 20°C, with a chance of summer showers so bring your overcoat!

Dublin
 Moving South to Ireland you will experience temperatures around 18°C, and again– chances of summer showers! A good rain coat and umbrella are a great idea for this trip!

Edinburgh
 Heading North to Scotland you will experience slightly cooler temperatures around 18°C. Summer brings mild temperatures and bright sunshine, with sudden periods of rain so never leave your umbrella behind!
