ABOUT THE SPEAKERS:

ALBERT GOODMAN – PAUL HAKE – PARTNER

Paul is a partner in Albert Goodman's Business Services Group and specialises in providing audit, accounting and commercial advice to a variety of clients across a wide range of sectors, from large regional businesses to smaller, owner-managed, operations.

Paul provides clients with solutions that are innovative yet practical. He advises clients at all stages of their business, but specialises in growth, maturity and sale or succession planning. He tailors his approach to the needs of each client – ensuring that his advice complements their in-house experience and capabilities.

BARCLAYS – NICK PORTER – AREA MANAGER, BARCLAYS BUSINESS TEAM SOMERSET AND WEST DORSET

Nick has worked in the banking sector for over 22 years spending the majority of this time working in various roles within business banking. Nick has worked with businesses from start-ups through to large corporate businesses and has developed a strong knowledge across a wide number of sectors.

Nick recently returned to Barclays having spent the last 8 years with another UK Bank where he held various positions at national level including strategy, performance, process and people management.

Nick has won external awards during his career for his innovative approach to business, including recognition for a talent and succession model that is recommended as international best practice for business.

PORTER DODSON - EVELYN ADFIELD - PARTNER

Evelyn qualified as a solicitor in 2002 and joined Porter Dodson as a Partner in 2012. She has extensive experience on the full range of business services, having worked with a broad range of businesses, ranging from local sole traders, partnerships and small owner-managed companies to larger regional, national and international corporates.

Evelyn's experience allows her to ease the legal process for her clients. She works with clients to understand their business and objectives so that she can deliver high quality focused advice and solutions relevant to their needs.
