Part 2, 1 (A) 1	Advisor creates and supervises an actively managed portfolio of securities that consist primarily of individual stocks chosen from the Investment Quality Trends newsletter. Under normal market conditions stock selections will be made from all newsletter categories except those that are deemed to be Overvalued. Stocks are typically purchased at or near their historically repetitive area of Undervalue and held through their Rising Trend until such time that they reach their historically repetitive area of Overvalue as defined by Investment Quality Trends. When positions reach their Overvalued area they are typically liquidated and the proceeds are redirected to new Undervalued positions. It is the investment policy of Advisor to avoid the use of margin, short sales and options. Client will pay Advisor an annual fee based on a percentage of the assets managed, billed quarterly in arrears as follows: .25% per quarter or 1.0% per annum on assets between $1,000,000 and $5,000,000. .1875% per quarter or 0.75% per annum on assets between $5,000,001 and $10,000,000. Fees for assets exceeding $10,000,001 are negotiable. For engagements that commence prior to the end of a calendar quarter the fee will be pro-rated for the number of actual days the portfolio is under Advisor's management. Cash or securities added to the portfolio will be treated as having been deposited on the first day of the billing period. Advisor stipulates that its market is highly competitive and therefore reserves the right to negotiate its fee schedule in a competitive situation. Advisor reserves the right to negotiate its fee schedule if Advisor determines that flexibility on compensation is in its own enlightened self-interest.
Part 2, 1 (A) 2	Advisor provides a Consulting Service that consists of advice and recommendations on portfolio securities to individuals, fiduciaries of qualified plans, trusts, and endowments and foundations on a non-discretionary basis. The Consulting Service differs from the Investment Supervisory Service in that Advisor will only make buy, sell, and hold recommendations for the respective portfolio. It is the Client's sole responsibility to effect those recommendations at their discretion. Client will keep Advisor apprised as to the portfolio composition and Advisor will make recommendations as to subsequent transactions as Advisor deems prudent. At no time will Advisor have the authority or discretion to effect transactions on client's behalf. Client will pay Advisor an annual fee based on a percentage of the assets, billed semi-annually in advance as follows: .35% or $1,500, whichever is greater, up to $5,000,000 in assets. .30% on assets from $5,000,001 to $10,000,000. Fees for assets exceeding $10,000,001 are negotiable.

Item of Form (identify)	Answer
Part 2, 1 (A) 3	Advisor stipulates that its market is highly competitive and therefore reserves the right to negotiate its fee schedule in a competitive situation. Advisor reserves the right to negotiate its fee schedule if Advisor determines that flexibility on compensation is in its own enlightened self-interest. Advisor furnishes investment advice through consultations that does not involve investment supervisory services or managing investment advisory accounts to fiduciaries of qualified plans, trusts, endowments and foundations and to individual investors with substantial assets. Client will pay Advisor an hourly rate of $350 per hour upon completion of the consultations.
Part 2, 4 (A) 5	Advisors officers and shareholders own and publish the Investment Quality Trends newsletter. Investment Quality Trends developed and utilizes a proprietary methodology based on an original concept of stock value-identification where investment considerations are centered on a list of equity securities that meet its Criteria for Select Blue Chip stocks. These stocks are then purchased and sold according to historic profiles of dividend yield that are designated as Undervalued and Overvalued. In simple terms this methodology is a fundamental approach to technical analysis that relies heavily on fundamental earnings and dividend data as well as historic dividend yield bands that are identified through analysis of long-term price and dividend yield charts.
Part 2, 4(B) 3 & 8	Advisor utilizes redundant research and information sources in an attempt to be as precise as possible on historic fundamental and technical data on the companies that meet its Criteria for Select Blue Chip stocks that comprise its universe. These sources include but are not limited to: Standard and Poor's; Dow Jones and Company, Inc.; Reuters; Charles Schwab and Company, Inc., and Goldman Sachs.
Part 2, 4(C) 7	Advisor constructs portfolios of equity securities that meet the Criteria for Select Blue Chip stocks in the Investment Quality Trends newsletter for the objectives of: principal preservation; an immediate and growing stream of income from dividends and dividend increases; and long-term capital appreciation. It is Advisors' intention to be fully invested in stocks at all times unless the current environment is one where asset valuations are at historical extremes, credit quality is low or volatility is excessive. Advisor may use cash equivalents and/or short-term, high-quality fixed instruments to the extent necessary to keep the portfolio capital productive.

Part 2, 9 (E)	Prudence dictates that Advisor invests its capital reserves and retained earnings in the normal course of business. As Advisor is in the business of identifying stocks for its clients, Advisor would be remiss in not using this information and expertise for its own investment purposes. Advisor stipulates that a conflict of interest would appear to exist; however, Advisor receives no special pricing or services for the management of its own capital and Advisor effects transactions on its behalf subsequent to effecting transactions on behalf of its clients.
Part 2, 12 (B)	Upon Client request, Advisor will recommend a custodian to hold Client's assets and to report on same. For economies of scale and ease of use, Advisor typically suggests the Schwab institutional division of Charles Schwab &amp; Company, Inc. The factors for recommending Schwab as custodian are as follows: Schwab Institutional provides a competitive fee structure for effecting transactions, particularly when Advisor is able to aggregate buy and sell orders. Schwab also provides a technology platform which assists Advisor in efficiently tracking and accounting for Client's assets and transactions. The Schwab Institutional platform also makes available access to critical market data and information from multiple sources easily attainable by combining the research offerings from these multiple sources into a single access point. The technology and research provided to Advisor does not increase the cost of transactions to Clients. The technology and research provided to Advisor is available to all Clients and there are no additional charges or fees for this technology and research.
Part 2, 13 (B)	Advisor has entered into a sub-advisory agreement with Jackson Financial Services, LLC (JFS), a registered investment advisor with the Securities and Exchange Commission. JFS introduces clients to Advisor for the purpose of entering into an investment management agreement with Advisor. Pursuant to The Investment Advisers Act of 1940, JFS and Advisor provides a written statement disclosing the relationship between JFS and Advisor. If a client introduced to Advisor by JFS retains Advisor for investment management services, the client will pay Advisor the fee specified in Part 2, 1 (A) 1. Twenty-five percent (25%) of this investment management fee will be paid to JFS by Advisor. This 25% represents a referral arrangement between JFS and Advisor. Advisor has standard fees and is not increasing these fees to compensate for the cost of referrals by JFS.
