

St. Bronagh's GAA Rostrevor

The management committee of St. Bronagh's G.A.A Rostrevor has introduced the attached code of conduct for every player involved with under age teams during the incoming year.

All players are obliged to read the code and agree to abide by it.

CODE OF CONDUCT

All under age players should:

- Play fairly and have fun.
- Represent your family and club with pride.
- Respect mentors and officials and accept their decisions.
- Respect your opponents.
- Shake hands with opponents before and after games.
- Respect fellow team members and give them support at all times.
- Be modest in victory and gracious in defeat.
- Let your mentors know when you are not available for training or games.
- Speak to your mentors or the club's Youth Officer if you have any questions or concerns.

All under age players should not:

- Cheat – always play by the rules.
- Shout or argue with an official.
- Bully team mates or opponents in any form.
- Tell lies about adults or other children.
- Take banned substances. Smoking especially, is strictly prohibited.
- Damage club property in any way.
- Use foul or abusive language.
