God loves each one of us as if there was only one of us.
Saint Augustine

Dear Members of the Trinity Family,

During the process of Lenten worship planning, one of our Trinity members made an astute observation about this season of fasting and repentance. She said, "The season of Lent is really all about love." What a profound and accurate assessment! Lent really is all about love. During these forty days of prayer, worship, self-reflection, and meditation we are pondering Christ's gift of love. On the cross Christ lays down his life for the world. The sin, suffering, sadness, and death of this world are conquered in this single display of God's love.

I believe that God loves the whole world. There is no sin, failure, mistake, shortcoming, or weakness that can alter God's love for us. This relationship of unconditional love was sealed when Christ gave his life for the whole world on the cross. While I believe that God loves the whole world, sometimes it is difficult to believe that God loves me. There are times when all I can see are the many ways I fall short of God's glory.

Years ago I read about a simple activity that is helping me fully appreciate the depth of God's love for me. Start by writing down the words of John 3:16 but in place of the word "world" insert your own name so that it reads For God so loved Wayne...Diane...John...Margaret...Henry...Megan...Susan. Sometimes I do this several times a day as a reminder of the depth of God's love for me and for the whole world. This activity reminds us that God loves each of us so much that God would have sacrificed Jesus for any one of us. I invite you to include this practice in your Lenten devotions. Our life changes when we experience for ourselves the reality that God loves the world - and every single one of us!

Peace, love, and joy,

Pastor Susan Crowell
