

RACE #1

BANNON

4 RIKER

1 CONQUEST CALIENTE

1a CONQUEST NITRO

2 MORE MIA

CONQUEST CALIENTE is one of two entered for Conquest Stables and Mark Casse along with Conquest Nitro; he was an auction purchase and has prepped in company with his mate getting ready and had a good speed trial June 27th in 48bg out in 1.01.3; he should be a factor.

CONQUEST NITRO a debut runner for Conquest Stables, has worked in company with Conquest Caliente and was right with that one June 27th in a trial in 48bg getting ready for Mark Casse.

MORE MIA a debut runner for Michael McDonald, is by Mass Media who was a Grade 1 winning sprinter in New York; he worked June 29th at a half mile in 49 getting ready and went positively; he had earlier practice from the gate; Boulanger gets the call; he merits a look.

BEHIND THE SCENE a debut runner for Laurie Silvera, was an auction purchase and is by the popular Graeme Hall; this one is from a dam who has produced a couple of juvenile winners; he prepped with Moreno aboard June 21st in 35.2.

RIKER a debut runner for Tucci Stables, goes for Nick Gonzalez with Campbell aboard; he is by Include who typically has stamina points although this one had speed in a gate work June 17th in 47.1bg getting ready.

FASHION PACKAGE a debut runner for Dave Cotey, is from a dam who has produced a couple of juvenile winners; this one has been moved at auction; a June 20th work came in the good time of 48.3bg; Skye Chernetz has the mount.

BILLY BOB JOE a debut runner for Troy Wismer, is a son of Nownownow, a significant stakes winner at the Breeders' Cup as a juvenile; he had his best work June 6th when going from the gate in 48.4bg; Olguin has the mount with blinkers from the outside.

BANNON

7 NINTH SYMPHONY - BEST BET

6 SPANISH RIVER

2 MACHO WHISKEY

3 REXTON

LUNAR LIGHT has been looking for an appropriate spot after his very fast recent half mile work but he scratched from a spot at Fort Erie Tuesday and will go here instead; he was in for just $16,000 June 14th when he finished third with a rally and was claimed by Danny Yu; he subsequently came back with the quick work.

MACHO WHISKEY was able to win for $10,000 in his return May 17th; he provided a timely rally under Wilson who knows him well; most recently, he was put up into a first allowance event where he actually ran quite well with an outside staying trip to be fifth beaten only three lengths; today he tackles an inflated allowance group.

REXTON was up on the pace pushing at seven furlongs June 14th then gave up positions late in the same race where Macho Whiskey stayed on better to be fifth and he meets that one again; he goes a furlong shorter.

HAWKS GOT FIRE last competed on May 8th and was fighting for the lead in the stretch but then gave up positions late; the winner of that first allowance event has already come back to win again.

WAKEBOARDER was no threat for $16,000 in a return race June 28th; he hung at the end; he is now up to an inflated first allowance event.

SPANISH RIVER had a good enough race two starts ago when taking his third career score; he moved smartly on the outside; most recently in a first allowance event, he stalked the pace and finished just on the edges when Macho Whiskey and Rexton had similar type efforts.

NINTH SYMPHONY is a three year old who failed a route experiment June 6th; he will cut back to six furlongs here and did look smart breaking his maiden May 17th with front end speed in a sprint; he has been freshened a month; he may well have speed tactics on his mind from the widest post.

BANNON

6 DOTTINS ALLEY

7 WHITE GLADIATOR

2 SCORCH

8 MACHO BREW

CONTRADICT departs a race on turf where he had his seasonal bow at seven furlongs; he raced near the back of the pack early then swivelled to the outside and closed generously to be third beaten less than a length and the troubled Macho Brew was better in second; he did have action on Poly track as a juvenile last season; he now goes from turf to Poly track and gets his initial two turn venture for Malcolm Pierce; he is a homebred for Pin Oak Stable.

SCORCH a homebred for Agustin Stable, had an excusable trip two starts ago when he lacked space at the top of the stretch and reported second behind Billy's Star; most recently, he hung at the most crucial stage when in against some of these; the runner up Ault has been entered in the Queen's Plate and the third place finisher White Gladiator is here; he has come back with some nice preps getting ready; Joseph Rocco Jr. takes the call for Hall of Fame trainer Mark Frostad.

CHARLIE'S WISDOM is usually on the edges; that was the case under the lights June 17th when he made his bid at the top of the stretch and got the lead only to have the winner rally and displace him in a solid offering.

THUNDER POINT was on Poly track June 20th in his second start of this year and committed to a speed style where he lost a front end battle to the winner, Broken Cloud and then retreated to third; he goes around two turns and may well be a pace factor here.

PAT DADDY made a big middle move in his previous event but couldn't sustain it; most recently, he was more thorough when fourth beaten two lengths and Charlie's Wisdom was second and Dottins Alley was third.

DOTTINS ALLEY was getting his debut June 17th and was asked to go two turns at first asking under the lights; the slow pace was against him but he moved forward in the lane from the outside to finish third beaten a length just behind the runner up Charlie's Wisdom; he came back to work June 28th in 1.00.4 for Roger Attfield.

WHITE GLADIATOR resurfaced as a gelding to begin this campaign June 6th; he raced away from the field in his return then came wide at the top of the stretch moving from last and finally finished a positive third; he looks to be a natural one to improve second time off the shelf; he worked recently in 49.3 for Mark Casse.

MACHO BREW debuted for Jim and Susan Hill June 5th at seven furlongs on turf and was without early speed; he started gaining quickly in the late stages against a crowded group and when he finally found a path it was too late; he was still generous with his energies to be the runner up; the big adjustment here is moving over to Poly track and going two turns in this second start; he does indicate a pair of recent five furlong works on Poly track getting ready to come from the outside; he is bred for stamina.

RACE #4

BANNON

7 BELIVEAU

8 GET'ERDONEBUD

9 ULTRAFLAME

1 NEIL'S DIAMOND

NEIL'S DIAMOND a homebred, is a half brother to Allowed, a winner here last Sunday for Franz Crean; he worked June 20th in 48.4hg getting ready and has since had a half mile spin in 48.3; Wilson rides from the rail.

MISTER NADA a son of Philanthropist, was an auction purchase and goes for Dave Cotey; he worked from the gate June 20th in 48.3bg getting ready; he was supplemented to this event.

PLAY WITH PASSION a homebred for Murray Stroud, is a son of Even The Score, a two time Grade 2 winner in California; he has prepped willingly and moved right along June 22nd in 48.3b and has since practiced from the gate in company in 48.3bg out in 1.02; he rates respect.

HEY BEAR did things much differently and much better second time out June 17th when an upset winner against his debut rival, Bright Light; he raced much closer to the pace and moved off the rail to go three wide and was perfect in the lane and then galloped out strongly; Moran has the mount for the third time; he competes for the Hendrie Stable which has enjoyed a storied history on past Queen's Plate days.

RUTH LESS BLUE a homebred for Rijack Farm and Partner, goes for Scott Fairlie; he has had a concentrated series of works at a half mile getting ready and prepped from the gate June 14th in 48.3bg; Rainford has the mount in this launch.

BRIGHT LIGHT debuted June 17th and had a strong performance to be second against the more seasoned Hey Bear who edged him in a stretch battle; he is hoping for the same type of stark improvement that Hey Bear enjoyed in his second start.

BELIVEAU an impressive debut winner in May was first home in the recent Victoria Stakes on turf; he was subsequently disqualified but that decision is under appeal; he is back on a quick return here going five and a half furlongs on poly track against restricted company.

GET'ERDONEBUD had a good opener when getting away from his opponents; second time out, he followed Beliveau to the turf for the Victoria Stakes where he ran adequately with a drafting trip inside to finish fourth; he fits nicely.

ULTRAFLAME is a second representative here for John Ross; he scratched from an event June 17th; he worked quickly May 31st in 47.3bg getting ready; he has since trained from the gate in 48.3bg getting ready.

RACE #5

BANNON

6 PUNTROOSKIE

9 MARTEN LAKE

4 JOLLY DANCER

3 FLASHY MARGARITTA

SNIPER was getting his second start of the meeting May 9th in a second allowance event where he closed sharply on the outside to be second behind a winner who always had better positioning; that was his second peak try of the spring time; he has been freshened by Barbara Minshall; Da Silva takes over here from the challenging rail post.

CONSTANTINO had a splendid winning seasonal bow April 25th; he came from last to win it late at the expense of Sniper; most recently, he was advancing from last and finished on the edges about three lengths behind in the same race where Puntrooskie was narrowly beaten; there is an extra half furlong available here.

FLASHY MARGARITTA is a speed type and perhaps the surface will be helpful to his style today; he came off the shelf and tried to zip away from a group at six furlongs last time but he was caught desperately late by the top two in a good showing; Husbands returns after a one race absence; a speedy surface would help.

JOLLY DANCER was prepping nicely getting ready for a June 14th return to the races and he was perfectly handled by Wilson who split rivals and drew off for trainer Sean Smullen; a homebred for Stronach Stables, he has had interrupted campaigning but has shown potential with two wins; he shortens to six and a half furlongs and goes to the first allowance level.

JADE DRAGON won his opening two events this season in middle claiming events; he was forced to scratch from a race June 24th and comes back here after an interim work in 1.00.3.

PUNTROOSKIE is without a victory for an extended period of time but he has good references; two starts ago, he narrowly lost the Vigil; in his most recently try, he was second narrowly beaten behind a former champion runner who moved past him in the last desperate yards; he remains a strong factor with Campbell aboard for Nick Gonzalez and they have had past success on this day.

TOO MANY EGBERTS is getting his first start since an unproductive pair of races in May; he worked June 29th in a sharp 48.4 getting ready to come off the shelf.

EIGHTY NINE RED won his season opener April 18th against Ontario sire company; in the New Providence Stakes last time, he was unable to threaten against some of the best in the division who took the top two spots; he has been freshened and now comes into this optional contest with a chance to rally.

MARTEN LAKE had a deceivingly good run last time when he closed outside and was beaten less than a length for it all and he wasn't far removed from the narrowly beaten runner up, Puntrooskie; it was his fourth strong race in a row this spring and he is currently an improved runner.

ANGRY MOON had an unusually poor performance to start this campaign when on Poly track; he duelled early with Flashy Margaritta then backed away; he has since worked strongly on turf; he remains on Poly track for this.

RACE #6

BANNON

11 LIGHT EM UP

5 B C BUD

7 MILWAUKEE FLASH

3 HE'S NO SAINT

IRON SPIKE a homebred for James and Janeane Everatt, is a brother to the outstanding performer Sand Cove, a multiple stakes winner and a million dollar earner; he worked from the gate June 27th in 48.2bg going well for Lisa Burry.

SLEWSRIDINGSHOTGUN put up a fast work June 14th in 1.00.4 and was back a week later where he encountered a quick group on turf and he finished sixth of fourteen with Mechanical second; he now goes back to Poly track.

HE'S NO SAINT a debut runner for Alec Fehr, is a son of Singing Saint who was represented in race five by the multiple winner Jolly Dancer; he will try seven furlongs at first asking here and worked from the gate June 28th in 1.01.3hg out in 1.14.2.

BOYZ O BOYZ was a distant fourth in his debut last November against a key speed winner; his seasonal bow June 6th saw him running late but with too much to do.

JIM BANNON'S JOURNAL JULY 5/2015

B C BUD is a big rangy type who can use all the ground available to him; he was a late running third in his troubled opener and then finished a strong second in his latest; the winner charged hard to take it away from him; he remains a key factor.

MECHANICAL had an amazing run on turf last outing; he had an awkward departure from the gate and then lacked room; he started in tenth at the top of the turf course and was a rousing second at the end; he now goes to Poly track.

MILWAUKEE FLASH has had seven shares in seventeen attempts; his seasonal bow came at just six and a half furlongs where he was sixth of nine after a slow departure from the gate; his interim six furlong work in 1.15.2 came in company with Shaman Ghost; he may wake up.

THUNDERCOVE a debut runner for Henry Palecki, is a homebred for Carol Ann Davidson; he was here prepping last season and has picked up his training again getting ready for this launch.

BALDUR a homebred for Heste Sport, goes for Bill Tharrenos; he is by Alumni Hall a stamina source; his quick work from the gate June 20th in 35.2bg should sharpen him; he has since had another longer work from the gate getting ready.

GUITAR GEORGE is a staying type who was on the edges in his debut last November and then second time out when more room was available, he once again took big support; he finished third against Queen's Plate hopeful Easy Indygo in that spot; this will be his seasonal bow and he has had a long series of works getting ready for Robert Tiller; he rates respect.

LIGHT EM UP a debut runner for Kingfield Racing Stable, goes for Catherine Day-Phillips and she was successful Wednesday with a debut runner, Peggy O also handled by Da Silva; this one is from a multiple stakes winning dam; he had a quick move June 27th in 1.00.3 getting ready; he is asked to travel seven furlongs at first asking.

SHOT FOR SHOT had a significant stretch charge at seven furlongs last time to be fourth when B C Bud was second; he puts the blinkers on here; he had an easy work for this.

SAFFIANO a debut runner for Carlos Grant, is bred for turf top and bottom but will debut here at seven furlongs on Poly track after a fast work from the gate June 24th in 1.01bg; Anderson has the mount.

VILLAIN'S PASSION a debut runner for Josie Carroll, has some turf breeding by Seeking The Best but will go here at seven furlongs on Poly track; he worked in company with a well regarded mate June 21st in 48.1bg; he has the outside.

2 WATSDACHANCES

7 STRUT THE COURSE

8 SKY TREASURE

4 SOLID APPEAL

WINNING RHYTHM a smart third in the Grade 2 Santa Ana in March at Santa Anita, was relocated here May 23rd for Stronach Stables; she joined the Sid Attard stable and had a run in the Nassau at just a mile where she was beaten about five lengths by Sky Treasure; she has had interim prepping both on turf and Poly track with her most recent trial in 59.4 being a superior move.

WATSDACHANCES failed to win last season but was competing against difficult opponents and was right on the edges; she began this campaign with a victory in the Grade 3 Gallorette a race in which she narrowly missed last season; she was also a stakes winner as a juvenile and as a three year old; given her strong outside push last time to win as the favourite, she now looks ready to move forward in form for trainer Chad Brown.

COPPER KITTEN won a second allowance event on turf at nine furlongs last time when staying on courageously; while she didn't keep up in the Nassau, she was will moving forward inside and wasn't far behind Sky Treasure in that event.

SOLID APPEAL a former champion on the strength of strong local wins, was lightly raced last year but did win this event; she began this campaign in Kentucky and was below her best then; she is coming to hand now and can improve here; the blinkers are on.

INDUSTRIAL POLICY was winter raced at Santa Anita on turf and was a fringe player in added money races; she moved to Kentucky May 16th where she was again just shy of getting initial Black type; she does have experience on this course.

HABIBI is seeking the best spot today; she was on turf here June 6th when getting her local introduction and she ran through the stretch as a team withSmartyfly and lost narrowly; she is a former New Zealand Derby winner.

STRUT THE COURSE should be ready to move forward now that she has had an opening race in the Nassau where she was beaten only two lengths despite a cramped journey; she has posted fast times in interim works on the training track getting ready to advance here in this second start of the meet with the stretch to nine furlongs.

SKY TREASURE was a rank outsider on the board for the Nassau Stakes but she performed professionally coming to the outside to produce a strong rally under Boulanger who retains the mount here for Mark Casse; she seemed to enjoy the one mile distance in that event; she will now try nine furlongs.

SMARTYFLY is a galloping type who needs to be encouraged; that was the case when she galloped along side of Habibi last time and beat that rival a nose in a drawn out affair; she had a sharp work in company June 27th in 47.4 for Malcolm Pierce; she is a homebred for Sam-Son Farm by Smart Strike now coming right back at nine furlongs.

LLANARMON was in the Nassau Stakes at just a mile and closed belatedly outside to be just five lengths away; Wilson has been aboard for interim works for Hal of Fame trainer, Roger Attfield.

1 BORN IN A BREEZE

7 IDES OF MARC

10 THE FEATHER LANDS

8 CITO

BORN IN A BREEZE moved to the control of Hall of Fame trainer Mark Frostad prior to his latest and he was tried on turf; he handled himself well in a seven furlong event on the lawn moving from eleventh to be third; he was against the speed flow of the race; for this transfer to a Poly track route, he worked June 27th where the onus was on slow early fractions to produce some stamina and he stayed on well with Scorch; lasix is added and Husbands rides; the runner up has since won.

TAKEITDOWNTHEROAD wasn't far away in a seasonal bow going long May 15th and the top two are headed for the Queen's Plate; he has been busy with works since then and should progress in this second start of the meet; he rates respect for Mike Doyle.

JIM BANNON'S JOURNAL JULY 5/2015

MILWAUKEE MAGIC was used on the outside in a six furlong race last outing and finished third; he is by Milwaukee Brew and will now stretch around two turns.

BOLD ESPRESSO went long on the lead last September when stretching from a sprint to a route; he began this campaign in a two turn event where he made the lead in the middle stages but hung when Cito was second; he is hopeful of going forward here.

NO MUZZLE won second time out when he looped rivals and closed sharply from the outside; he will now look to go from a sprint to a route.

DIVINE DANCE had a tough trip last time; he broke poorly; he was inside at the top of the stretch where he checked; he got going well enough deep in the stretch; he is looking for a more productive journey today.

IDES OF MARC was spectacular in his winning debut at seven furlongs for Ian Black; it seemed improbable that he could come from last in early stretch but he angled off the rail to the outside and was resolute with his late energy; he did keep The Feather Lands behind him in ninth; he has been busy with positive preps in the interim looking ready to go long; he has the makings of a route runner.

CITO showed improvement in his second start this season which also came at a route; he moved inside and was second beaten only a length; he did have a prosperous two turn win last November; Olguin steps in here.

CASSIUS had worked quickly from the gate on Poly track at the beginning of May; his opener was drab but second time out, he went to Fort Erie to clean up in the slop.

THE FEATHER LANDS was showing potential in his opening races this season; he encountered a troubled trip June 6th when he lost his path on the turn; he is a long striding runner who got into the clear last time on a quick comeback with blinkers added and he showed an extended stride to win at seven furlongs; he looks to be a natural to go around two turns; he has had an interim work in 59.2 for Robert Tiller.

8 HYPER

4 DYNAMIC SKY

2 ALDOUS SNOW

3 JAVA'S WAR

TURKISH a winner of the Valedictory Stakes, has had three races on grass this season without producing; he was in a starter event June 19th where he attended the pace with surprisingly good positioning but he faltered out of the money.

ALDOUS SNOW won this event last year by a scant nose in a desperate late fight and it was his second consecutive turf win here for the campaign; he started June 13th in a race that came off the turf and running from off the pace had him against the elements, yet, he was beaten only a length and a half with Money Talker one position better in second; he has since had a good work in company in 47.4.

JAVA'S WAR is a two time winner on the grass and he is a Grade 1 winner on Poly track; he was hoping for an opportunity to be on turf here June 13th but the event went on Poly track and running from off the pace was difficult to do; he finished a close fourth against the front runner while Aldous Snow was third and Money Talker was second; he came back with a booming work June 27th in 1.00.2 getting ready; he is a homebred for Charles Fipke going for Hall of Fame trainer, Roger Attfield.

DYNAMIC SKY left here after the International last year to win the Grade 3 Red Smith at Aqueduct; he has been just on the edges so far this season and most recently at two miles on the turf at Belmont, he was third beaten just two lengths by Innovation Economy who provided a deep rallying win in that event; he worked here June 27th for Mark Casse in 1.01.1 closing well; he is a three time winner on this course.

JOHNNY BEAR was in a first allowance event June 6th on Poly track where he faced some difficult opponents and he advanced inside and almost won it; the first place finisher came back to win here on Wednesday; he does enjoy turf and enjoys a test of stamina.

HABIBI a winner of the Group 1 New Zealand Derby, has relocated to North America for a four race stint including a race here June 6th for Mark Frostad; she made a bold move at the top of the stretch and looked every bit a winner but finally she couldn't displace the five year old mare, Smartyfly; she enters against the boys.

MONEY TALKER was hopeful of getting on to the turf June 13th but that event was moved to Poly track and he helped himself by staying close to the pace of a front running winner; he moved up in the stretch and was second best while taking sharp support; he did keep Aldous Snow behind him in third and Java's War was fourth; he is a five time winner on grass for Stronach Stables.

HYPER was here in 2013 for the International and finished a rousing second against Joshua Tree; he is currently on the comeback trail as an eight year old and most recently in the Grade 1 Manhattan at Belmont, made a middle move but lacked room while inside in the stretch; this will be his third race off the shelf and it may well be a peak effort for Chad Brown.

3 SOMETHING EXTRA

4 SHARP SENSATION

7 KATIE'S EYES

2 MOSLER

GO BLUE OR GO HOME is one of two entered for Jim and Susan Hill along with Sharp Sensation; he won this race in 2013; he was shut out in light campaigning last season but was typically on the edges; most recently at Presque Isle on Tapeta, he moved sharply in tight quarters between rivals to get third money; he seeks his fourth win on turf.

MOSLER a significant auction purchase, was finally a stakes winner April 29th at Belmont when traveling seven furlongs; he engaged the pace makers in the stretch and got clear at the finish; most recently at six furlongs at Belmont in the Grade 3 Jaipur, he had an unfortunate incident when he needed to go around a stricken rival losing valuable ground outside; he stayed on to be sixth beaten five lengths when Something Extra was second; he meets that one here.

SOMETHING EXTRA won this race last season; his victory in April at Keeneland in the important Grade 3 Shakertown was his fifth stakes score; he subsequently ran well at Churchill Downs when on the edges and most recently at Belmont in the Grade 3 Jaipur, he was beaten only late by an aggressive stalker who was long odds; he should welcome the move back home; he worked quickly last weekend in 46.4 for Gail Cox.

SHARP SENSATION a three time stakes winner, looked good winning an added money race at Churchill last November; he was here in his finale for the Kennedy Road when second; he had taken down a rich purse when he scored in the Grade 3 Turf Monster at Parx last September; he prepped last Sunday in 1.00.3 for Reade Baker getting ready for Jim and Susan Hill.

REFLECTOR was at Evangeline Downs May 2nd for a run at five furlongs on turf in an added money event; he waited patiently at the top of the stretch behind traffic and then moved outside to take down the top prize; he will be running farther on this more wide open course; he goes for connections represented by Milwaukee Mist in the Queen's Plate.

SHRINKING VIOLET comes in for Wesley Ward; she is a five year old mare who won early in the year at Santa Anita at six and a half furlongs in the Grade 2 Monrovia by clinging to the rail with a rally at long odds; most recently at Pimlico, she raced well at five furlongs on turf and again made a rail dash; she meets the boys here with Hernandez aboard.

KATIE'S EYES has been strong this season with four consecutive wins in turf sprints at shorter distances than today's venue; at Keeneland two starts ago, she looped her opponents and was clear; most recently, she had more work to do at Churchill but again came around rivals under a steady 125 lbs to make it four in a row; Husbands has the mount in this local introduction for Michael Stidham.

1 SHAMAN GHOST

4 ACADEMIC

7 DANISH DYNAFORMER

8 CONQUEST BOOGALOO

SHAMAN GHOST is a homebred for Stronach Stables, two time winners of this event with Awesome Again and Basqueian; he is a son of their outstanding performer Ghostzapper, himself a son of Queen's Plate winner, Awesome Again; he was slow to develop going unplaced in his opening three events; since dedicating himself to route racing with the blinkers off, he has been perfect from mid March through the Marine Stakes; in his latest, he overcame a shuffling incident on the turn and showed remarkable stretch power with a late move under Rafael Hernandez for trainer Brian Lynch; he opted to skip the Plate Trial; recent preparations include an early morning trial June 19th in a reported 1.11; a subsequent seven furlong trial June 27th had plenty of design to it; he was in company and went slowly in the early furlongs but quickened at the end in 1.28 out a mile in 1.42.3 and he traveled his final quarter in a sharp 24.2 seconds; the rail draw makes his trip potentially more challenging.

OAKTON an auction purchase for Bill and Vicki Poston Racing Inc., goes for champion trainer Mark Casse; he was a local auction purchase and is a son of Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner, Macho Uno, himself a half brother to Awesome Again; his initial win was a front running score in April at Keeneland; in his latest here, he pressed on the pace when on the edges; he should be forwardly positioned.

AULT is a homebred for Canyon Creek Farms, bred in British Columbia; Walter and Terry Leong won the Queen's Plate with Strait Of Dover also bred in British Columbia and by the same sire, Smart Strike's son, English Channel; he wintered in Florida where he campaigned ineffectively on turf; he came home June 6th for trainer Dan Vella; in a maiden contest, which was set up for closing types because of the inordinately fast pace structure, he moved outside through the stretch and missed narrowly against an older winner; he had a prompt work June 28th in 1.00.2 getting ready; Vella seeks his third win in the Queen's Plate after earlier scores with Strait Of Dover and Basqueian.

ACADEMIC an auction purchase for the Bear Stables of Danny Dion, carries bloodlines closely associated with past success in this event being a granddaughter of Hennessy, the sire of Inglorious and being from a daughter of Awesome Again; her season hit a low point when she was scratched at the gate May 2nd; since that time, she has taken a maiden win on the front end; she followed with her heroic run in the Woodbine Oaks from a wide post; she crossed over and made all of the pace under smart handling from Stein at 66-1; it was a record performance in 1.48.86 where she not only eclipsed the time of 1.49.77 established by Lexie Lou last season but she went almost a full second quicker than Danish Dynaformer who won the Plate Trial in 1.49.81; she worked Sunday under soggy conditions in 1.00.4 out in 1.13.4 with Stein aboard; former champion trainer, Reade Baker did bring Oaks winner, Gold Strike, to the 2005 Queen's Plate and she finished third; Stein seeks his second Queen's Plate winner having won earlier with Strait Of Dover; she has been supplemented.

BILLY'S STAR a homebred for Charles Fipke, competes for the Perfect Timber Partnership; he is by Fipke's own Perfect Soul, a Grade 1 winner of the Shadwell; he is from a well related dam who has already produced a Grade 1 winner; he showed promise last season as a juvenile when fourth in the Cup & Saucer; after a maiden win when reintroduced here May 8th, he competed in the Trial where his chances were totally compromised because of an incident on the backstretch that he abruptly avoided; he has come back with recent works in company with stable mate Danish Dynaformer and has had Da Silva aboard in the morning; in his trial June 27th in 1.00.2, he galloped out in 1.12.4; he seeks to give Hall of Fame trainer Roger Attfield a record ninth win in the Queen's Plate and provide a second score for Fipke who won earlier with homebred Not Bourbon; Da Silva seeks his third win in this event after earlier scores with Eye Of The Leopard and Big Red Mike.

SWEET GRASS CREEK is a homebred Hall of Fame owner Gustav Schickedanz who has won the Queen's Plate twice previously with Woodcarver and Wando who captured the 2003 Triple Crown; he is a son of Wando himself a son of the outstanding Langfuhr; he has come to hand in recent races with a maiden score May 18th where his size and power were on full display even though he raced greenly in the final stages; most recently against Ontario sire rivals, he missed an opportunity to double up; he moved to the lead in the stretch but once again raced greenly and lost the advantage in the final yards; he has had a number of good preps heading to this including a work June 19th in 1.39; his very useful prep June 25th in 1.12.1 out in 1.28 was quick and thorough; he had a blowout on Wednesday morning in 48.3; he competes for trainer Mike Keogh who seeks his third Queen's Plate victory; Campbell has the mount and he seeks his second win in this event after a front running victory on Midnight Aria; he has been training with blinkers added and will run with them today for the initial time.

DANISH DYNAFORMER is a homebred for Charles Fipke who won this event in 2008 with homebred, Not Bourbon; he is a son of Dynaformer, a stamina influence and is from an extremely well related dam; he won at Gulfstream in the winter; he also scored an April win when doubling up on the lawn at Keeneland; since coming home, he has taken a third in the Marine Stakes where he swung far to the outside of Shaman Ghost; most recently in the Plate Trial, he swung three wide at the top of the stretch to win it with a rally; a rider switch has been necessitated and now Husbands who seeks his third win in this event, will be aboard for Hall of Fame trainer Roger Attfield who seeks a record ninth win in this event; he has worked recently in company with his stable mate Billy's Star; in his trial June 27th with Husbands aboard in 1.00.1, he went out in 1.12.4; a Trial win has been a past key for Attfield's success in this race.

CONQUEST BOOGALOO competes for Conquest Stables LLC of Ernie Semersky and Dory Newell; he was an auction purchase and is a son of the popular Scat Daddy; he was a stakes winner when a developing juvenile; he closed too late in the Queenston Stakes wanting more room; in the Marine Stakes, he lacked room inside through the stretch in a frustrating experience; most recently in the Plate Trial, he was totally compromised when he abruptly avoided an incident on the backstretch; in a near miraculous recovery, he started over and came from twelfth to be third beaten only two lengths and was rushing at the end in a highlight stretch performance; he worked last Sunday to the outside of a stable mate in 1.01.2 getting ready; he goes for seven time champion trainer Mark Casse who seeks his second Queen's Plate win; Alan Garcia will remain aboard.

BREAKING LUCKY competes for the Gunpowder Farms LLC of Thomas H. Keithley and goes for trainer, Reade Baker; he was an auction purchase and is an attractive son of Lookin At Lucky who is represented this year by the profitable sophomore, Madefromlucky; after a maiden win here April 18th in his second lifetime start, he has followed with two compromising trips; he had difficulty in a paceless event May 10th when a late lead disappeared; most recently in a first allowance event, he was rank and out of sync on the first turn and without ample racing room on the second turn; he has since had a big work for this on the training track June 21st in 59.2; his work last Sunday came in 1.02; Jim McAleney rides; the blinkers are removed.

EASY INDYGO an auction purchase, competes for the Tucci Stables of Lou Tucci and Carlo Tucci who captured this event with Midnight Aria; he is by Breeders' Stakes winner Marchfield; he showed potential when given his initial route test in the middle of May; he ended second against Portree; most recently, he closed outside and missed narrowly when Sweet Grass Creek was one position in front of him in second; he goes for Nick Gonzalez who seeks his third win in the Queen's Plate; Emma-Jayne Wilson will take over and she seeks her second win in this event after an initial score with Mike Fox.

PORTREE is a homebred for the Chiefswood Stable of Robert Krembil and Mark Krembil who captured this event in 2004 with their own Niigon, the sire of this one; he was unraced as a juvenile but has been smart in his races this season; he won his opener in April and doubled up in May handling the transition to a route; most recently in the Plate Trial, he was left with the lead prematurely, yet, stayed willingly to be fourth; he prefers a target to run at in the stretch; he had a subsequent work on the training track in 1.02b getting ready for Stuart Simon; Gerry Olguin has the mount.

MILWAUKEE MIST an auction purchase, competes for the Preston Stables LLC of Arthur Preston and goes for Pavel Matejka; he had a maiden win at first asking early this year at Turfway on a synthetic surface; his most recent events have been compromised by poor racing luck; in his latest at Churchill Downs on the grass, he was bumped at the break and was far back in the early going and then attempted an outside move and was finally on the edges; Gary Boulanger now rides and seeks his second win in this event after an initial score aboard Dancethruthedawn.

BEAR AT LAST is a second representative for Bear Stables and trainer Reade Baker; he was promising as a juvenile when stakes placed in the Kingarvie; he came to hand April 19th when returning home from Florida when a tight third in the Wando Stakes; in two subsequent races, he has endured troubled trips; he stumbled at the start of an event May 23rd and then was fanned wide on the final turn; most recently in the Plate Trial, he was shuffled back inside from fourth to ninth and finally finished on the edges; he had an early morning work last Sunday in 1.02 getting ready; Rico Walcott is here for the return engagement.

AMI'S FLATTER a homebred for Ivan Dalos made a positive impression here last November when winning at first asking; he got good during the winter time and was runner up in the Grade 2 Tampa Bay Derby and was subsequently third in the Grade 1 Florida Derby; he was refocused with the Queen's Plate in mind and most recently competed in the Marine Stakes where he stalked behind runners at the top of the stretch then hung and finished a disappointing seventh as the 3-5 favourite; he was then turned out; he had a seven furlong work June 21st in 1.25 out a mile in 1.39; he finished well in his work June 29th in 48.2 out in 1.01.2 with Contreras aboard; he goes for trainer Josie Carroll who seeks her third win in the Queen's Plate; Carroll combined with Contreras to win with Inglorious and they combined for positive results throughout last year's Triple Crown events with Ami's Holiday; the blinkers are removed.

6 INDIAN GUIDE

14 UNIKAT

5 LONG JOHNS

11 MONEY TALKS

BUTTERFLY STRIKE took a maiden score May 16th and needed some coaxing to stay on but he persisted and both the second and third place finishers have come back to win; he worked in company June 28th in 1.01.4 for Malcolm Pierce getting ready for Sam-Son Farm; he shifts to turf and speed is likely.

EAST SIDE has tried the turf a couple of times and has been a fringe player at best; he began this campaign June 14th in a first allowance event where he was trailing early and he didn't threaten.

BANGKOK was in against a key winner last time; he was wide on the first turn then stayed outside on the second turn; he made a move in the stretch but didn't have sufficient resources and finished fifth; he does like turf.

NIIGON EXPRESS tried turf for the only time in the Breeders' Stakes last year and was on the edges; he stalled on the turn on Poly track last time then tried a second spurt in the stretch.

LONG JOHNS a four year old, took a maiden win in his seasonal bow on grass and reclaimed the advantage late; most recently on Poly track, he drafted behind the field into the turn then found room at the top of the stretch and had a match race for second prize with the eventual third place finisher; he is a homebred for Doug Anderson and Rita Eskudt getting back to the lawn and stretching out; he gets a more serious test today.

JIM BANNON'S JOURNAL JULY 5/2015

INDIAN GUIDE was a winner at Gulfstream to take a maiden score in April handling turf quite well with a deep closing style; when he came home May 17th, he went to Poly track where he had a wide trip and finished a solid third; both the second and sixth place finishers have come back with big wins; he now gets over to turf or Pat Parente.

NOLANGRANT'SKITTEN looks to be coming around; in his second start locally, he moved over to turf and was in a pace chase with Holy Whirl Wind and he sagged from that pursuit.

HOLY WHIRL WIND went out on to the lead May 29th at a mile on turf and then was joined by Nolangrant'skitten who was aggressive along side and both runners peeled back late; he has had an interim work in 1.00.4.

LUCKY LINDY a developing three year old, was able to win in his seasonal bow with a late rally in an event that came off the grass; he found adequate room; he will be looking for turf here and worked recently on the grass for Hall of Fame trainer Mark Frostad.

HAWK'S WELL is a one time winner on turf in his career and he handled the surface quite well; this will be his first start in about forty nine weeks and he has been gearing up with a series of works including a recent move in 1.14 for Ian Howard; he has stretch power.

MONEY TALKS is discovering grass here for William Tharrenos; he ran well in an upper claiming evaluation when he returned June 10th and he was finally second against a stretch charger; he has indicated several peak performances and now looks to put two good races together.

CRUISIN HARD competed at this distance on turf June 19th and while he had no impact, he was running over rivals on the gallop out; he will remain at the same distance with Simon Husbands now aboard.

OIL STRIKE is a developing four year old who has run well in recent Poly track routes; he will now move to turf for just the second time in his career and try to apply his improved form.

UNIKAT last competed April 4th at Gulfstream in a long distance affair where he landed on the edges after a galloping approach; he had won here last year at about this time in a ten furlong race on turf; he has been doing plenty of prepping on turf getting read for this return for Brian Lynch; he is a homebred for Stronach Stables by Galileo.

3 CLASSIC TALE

1 SHE'S A RINGER

12 ALPHABETICALLY

9 RING FOR ESSA

SHE'S A RINGER is an obvious contender; she has run well in all three races to be close by; she was immediately put up on a fast pace last time and stayed willingly throughout when third beaten just a length; she now extends to seven furlongs.

ANOTHER GIRL has two shares in three trips this season; she came three wide from the second flight in her latest and got the show award for Nick Gonzalez.

CLASSIC TALE a debut runner, is a homebred for J. M. Stritzl Stable by Niigon and from a stakes placed dam; she indicates a couple of quick works at five furlongs and had a quick work from the gate June 7th in 47.4bg getting ready for Abraham Katryan.

OPATOV a debut runner by Singing Saint, goes for Desmond Maynard and tried an extended distance in a turf workout June 26th; she will try seven furlongs on Poly track in this introduction.

BOGGIE just missed in a May 8th return to the races at five and a half furlongs and she closed from seventh; most recently, she experimented around two turns where she drafted in traffic and then stayed on outside in a good showing; she cuts back to seven furlongs and rates attention; she worked recently on the training track in 49.

ANGELACREST a debut runner for Langcrest Farm, goes for John Charalambous; she is bred to be a stayer and is from the same dam who produced Brewcrest who won twice last season; she goes seven furlongs at first asking.

NEEVES was out of the money when she debuted but second time out, she went to turf and at 63-1, she missed narrowly displaying a strong stride; she was caught by a deep closer; now that she has arrived in top form, she looks to take it to Poly track at seven furlongs.

LILLY'S GOLDIE was here last year without producing but started to build momentum recently at Gulfstream with a closing bid; the runner up has come back to score; she has looked keener in two works since coming home.

RING FOR ESSA a debut runner, is a homebred for Paul Buttigieg; she has posted some good training moves including a half mile work June 29th in 47.3; she is a daughter of Where's The Ring going for David Moran at seven furlongs.

DIPPED IN PEARLS a debut runner by Old Forester, is from the same dam who produced Bangkok who was entered in race twelve today; she has had a couple of positive works including a move June 26th in 48.2hg with Boulanger aboard.

GARAFRAXA was up close but didn't have much room in a seven furlong event last time and wilted; she came back June 25th with a prompt work in 1.00.3 featuring a good finish.

ALPHABETICALLY a debut runner for Brandon Greer, is a homebred for Janet E. Ward by Alphabet Soup; this one is from an Alydeed mare and he was a Queen's Plate winner; she has moved into positive territory with recent works including a trial from the gate June 27th in 48.1bg; Contreras has been attracted.

STILL SEARCHING posted a fast work June 26th in 1.00.4 getting ready; she stretched to a route last time where she had speed; she now turns back in distance and adds blinkers.

PLAY IT FORWARD was running on through the stretch in her debut suggesting more room would be helpful; the stable does well with second out starters; more room is available here.
