

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Purpose of the Scholarship

To financially assist graduate students in obtaining their graduate level degree in an aquatic-related field of study.

Donation

Anchor QEA has established a $6,000 scholarship fund to assist graduate students in their pursuit of higher education. Individual scholarship awards will range in value from $500 to $6,000 and will be provided to the recipient's institution of higher learning to be disbursed to the student for graduate school tuition and supplies.

Eligibility

- Full-time graduate student or person accepted to a United States graduate school
- Undergraduate GPA equivalent of B average or higher
- Major: fisheries; environmental sciences; planning/land use; landscape architecture; or coastal, geotechnical, or environmental engineering (any of which should have an aquatic/waterfront emphasis)
