

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Excellence in Mentoring Award
Nomination Form

The Nomination Deadline is October 31, 2008

Please Read Carefully:

1. This award was created to recognize a university employee who has engaged in an outstanding mentoring relationship, or has been involved with a mentoring program or initiative on campus that has promoted a culture of mentoring on the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill campus.
2. The award will include a plaque, to be presented the first week of December in the recipient's department or other designated area, and twenty-four hours of paid time off. The recipient will also be automatically nominated for a Chancellor's Award in the category of Human Relations.
3. Complete the required information below and submit by October 31, 2008. The application will be received by the Excellence in Mentoring Award Committee.
4. If multiple employees want to nominate the same person, please complete one nomination form, and have each employee attach their own description of how this nominee has directly engaged in or promoted a mentoring culture in the workplace.
