Gift Tag Book Report Directions

1. Include the title and author and pass in the book and the boxes with the gift tag.
- 2 Select a character. It may be a main or minor character.
3. Explain who this character is and his/her role in the story. You will end up revealing details about the plot as you write about this character.
4. Decide on three gifts you would like to give to this character. No cell phones as gifts. The gifts should be something the character could have used but did not have.
5. Draw and color (crayons or colored pencils only) pictures of the three gifts. All three gifts will go to the one character you have chosen.
6. Explain why you chose to give each of the gifts and how the character would have benefitted from having the gifts.
7. Decorate the outer edge of your gift tag and shade the ribbons.
8. Write neatly and observe conventions for English grammar. One point is subtracted for each grammar mistake.
