During each Holiday Programme your child/ren will be travelling by bus to organised outings. There will be a number of organised excursions during each programme, each week. In some circumstances your child may need to travel by car.

The bus companies we organise our transport through are reputable companies and the driver of the vehicles that your child/ren will be travelling in will:

- ★ have a current registration and warrant of fitness for their vehicle
- ★ have a full license and will adhere to Traffic Regulations

While travelling:

- ★ by bus children will be seated at all times
- ★ by car will be seated at all times and in accordance to the new Child Restraint Law, effective 1 November, 2013

Children must agree to:

- ★ following instructions/directions of the staff and drivers instantly
- ★ behaving appropriately whilst travelling in vehicles
