2008-2009 Verification for Worksheets A, B & C

Student's Name _____ Social Security Number: _____

We need to verify the amounts you reported on your financial aid application for 2008/09 under Worksheets A, B, & C of the FAFSA. Please complete the worksheets below and return to our office as soon as possible. Dependent applicants must provide both student and parent information. (Note: Use amounts that apply during the calendar year from January 1, 2007 to December 31, 2007, rather than the academic year. Also, make sure you are reporting the total for the year not the monthly amount.)

| Student/Spouse | Worksheet A Report Annual Amounts | Parent(s) |
|----------------|--|---------------|
| | Earned income credit from IRS Form 1040-line 66a; 1040A-line 40a; 1040EZ-line 8a. | |
| | Additional child tax credit from IRS Form 1040-line 68 or 1040A-line 41. | |
| | Welfare benefits, including Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF). Don't include food stamps or subsidized housing. | |
| | Social Security benefits received, that were not taxed (such as SSDI), for all household members as reported in question 90 (or 66 for your parents). Report benefits paid to parents in the Parents column, and benefits paid directly to student (or spouse) in the Student/Spouse column. | |

California Information Privacy Act

State and federal laws protect an individual's right to privacy regarding information pertaining to oneself. The California Information Practices Act of 1977 requires the following information be provided to financial aid applicants who are asked to supply information about themselves. The principal purpose for requesting information on this form is to determine your eligibility for financial aid. The Chancellor's Office policy and the policy of the community college to which you are applying for aid authorize maintenance of this information. Failure to provide such information will delay and may even prevent your receipt of financial assistance. This form's information may be transmitted to other state agencies and the federal government if required by law. Individuals have the right of access to records established from information furnished on this form as it pertains to them.

The officials responsible for maintaining the information contained on this form are the financial aid administrators at the institutions to which you are applying for financial aid. The SSN may be used to verify your identity under record keeping systems established prior to January 1, 1975. If your college requires you to provide an SSN and you have questions, you should ask the financial aid officer at your college for further information. The Chancellor's Office and the California community colleges, in compliance with federal and state laws, do not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, gender, age, disability, medical condition, sexual orientation, domestic partnership or any other legally protected basis. Inquiries regarding these policies may be directed to the financial aid office of the college to which you are applying.
