

BAC JURY REVIEW PROCEDURE

All artist participation at Bainbridge Arts & Crafts is by invitation of the curatorial staff. If you're interested in selling your work at BAC or if you'd just like some feedback from professional gallery staff, we encourage you to participate in a BAC jury. Because we're a nonprofit gallery, we're here to help you, encourage you, advise you, and answer questions.

BAC operates on a consignment basis and retains a 50% commission. More than 250 artists from Washington, Oregon, Idaho, British Columbia, and Alaska, working in many mediums, sell their work through us.

BAC looks for Northwest artists whose work displays a thorough mastery of medium, a strong contemporary style, and a professional presentation, with flatwork framed and wired. The jury carefully considers each artist.

We ask that prospective artists look over our website (www.bacart.org) and visit the gallery in person before jurying. Do you think that your work would be a good fit at Bainbridge Arts & Crafts? Are we a good fit for you?

If so, here's how to participate in a BAC Jury:

1. Fill out a jury application. You can drop by BAC to pick one up or download it here. If you're unsure about your pricing, please make your best estimation. We'll be happy to discuss it with you.
2. Make a reservation. Call us at 206.842.3132. We limit each jury to 10 artists so that we have ample time to consider your work.
3. Day of jury: Check in at the gallery between 10 and 10:30 a.m. At that time you will make an appointment to return later in the day to meet with a curator and discuss your work. A staff member will direct you to our conference room where you will leave your work (no need to carry it into the gallery). We suggest that you park in the lower lot east of Eagle Harbor Book Co., accessible through Bjune Drive.

Bring with you:

- Your application, resume, and artist statement.
- Your real work, not reproductions, with a maximum of five pieces per medium.

Meetings begin at 1 p.m. and take place in 30-minute intervals, so expect several hours between dropping off your work and meeting with the curator.

If you have questions, please call us, 206.842.3132.
