Emergency Medical Authorization

I am aware of the risks, hazards, and inherent dangers that may arise due to my (if over 18), or my child’s (if participant is under 18) participation in the Fort Hays State University Tiger Football Camp, and I agree to assume all these risks in order to participate, or for my child to participate in the camp. In consideration for being allowed to participate in the camp, I hereby release, waive, and discharge Fort Hays State University, Chris Brown, and any and all staff members of the camp from every claim, liability, or demand arising out of any personal injury or property damage sustained or incurred during the camp. I fully agree to indemnify the University from any loss, liability, damage or cost that may occur due to my, or my child’s, participation in the camp. I represent that I am, or my child is, covered by sufficient medical and dental insurance to cover any treatment for any injury or illness that may arise during the camp and that such insurance will remain in effect during the camp. I understand that neither Fort Hays State University nor its employees, including Chris Brown and the staff of the camp, will be liable for any charges incurred as a result of any medical treatment provided for any injury or illness that may arise during the camp. I hereby authorize the staff of the Fort Hays State University Tiger Football Camp to act for me according to their best judgment in any emergency requiring medical attention, which may include, but not limited to, the staff providing emergency first aid and treatment at the scene of any emergency, the administration of any treatment deemed necessary by a licensed physician or dentist, or the transfer of me, or my child, to any hospital reasonably accessible in order to provide treatment.

Fort Hays State University Tiger Team Football Camp 2015

8-Man
Team Camp
June 14-16

Camp Philosophy

The 2015 Tiger Camp will be held at the Fort Hays State University Football facilities and directed by head coach, Chris Brown and the FHSU football staff. The camp will feature an emphasis on techniques and the fundamentals of football. The camp will provide an opportunity for individual time and instruction, competition, and team work. The goal of the camp is to ensure that each student athlete leaves camp a better football player than when he arrived.

Team Camp June 14-16

The 8-Man Camp is open to teams with players entering grades 9-12. Overnight campers will be housed in FHSU dormitories. Campers must provide their own bedding and personal care items. Each team’s coaching staff will be staying in the dorms with the campers each night. Overnight campers, and the commuters who elect to purchase the meal plan will receive generous, well balanced meals in our campus dining facility. Commuter campers who do not wish to purchase a meal plan will be responsible for their own meals and snacks.

Head Coach Chris Brown

Chris Brown enters his fifth season as head coach of Fort Hays State in 2015. He has guided FHSU to 22 wins in four years, including a seven-win season in 2014, the school's first since 1996.

The Tigers have shown steady progress under Brown, posting a one-win improvement in each of the last three seasons. After finishing with a 4-7 mark in his first year (2011), the Tigers finished 5-6 in 2012, 6-5 in 2013, and then 7-4 in 2014. The most impressive part of the seven-win 2014 season was all wins were in MIAA play, arguably the nation’s premier Division

II conference. Fort Hays State’s previous high for MIAA wins in a season was four. FHSU joined the conference in 2006.

Brown, now 22-22 overall, came to Fort Hays State from Washburn University, where he served as the defensive coordinator and defensive secondary coach from 2002-2010 and assistant head coach in 2010.

FHSU enjoyed its most All-MIAA selections under Brown in each of the last two years (2013 and 2014) with 12. Brown has now coached 40 All-MIAA selections at Fort Hays State, including four first-team selections.

Brown has coached three All-Americans at FHSU, two in 2011 and one in 2014. That list includes linebacker Alex Whitehill, punter Ethan Kosjer, and safety Micheal Jordan. Whitehill led NCAA Division II and set a new Fort Hays State single-season record with 164 tackles in 2011, which was just five short of the Division II single-season record. Whitehill earned multiple All-American honors and was a CoSIDA/Capital One Academic All-American. Kosjer led Super Region 4 and ranked third in NCAA Division II in punting after averaging 44.4 yards per punt in 2011. He set new single-season (44.4) and career (41.4) records at FHSU for punting average and was also named to multiple All-America teams. Jordan recorded 80 tackles in 2014, adding an interception, a sack, two fumble recoveries, and an MIAA-best four forced fumbles. He had a hand in seven turnovers in 2014 for the Tigers.

Before coming to Hays, Brown helped Washburn compile a 62-41 record in his nine-year span with the program, which included two NCAA playoff appearances and two bowl wins. In his time at Washburn, Brown coached the 2009 and 2006 MIAA Most Valuable Defensive Players and guided two players selected in the NFL Draft (defensive tackle Trey Lewis-6th round 2007, and cornerback Cary Williams-7th round 2008). Brown also coached six All-Americans, 20 all-region and 41 All-MIAA selections at Washburn. His defense led the MIAA in turnovers gained in three of his final four seasons there, including a school record-tying 23 interceptions in 2007.

Brown joined the Washburn coaching staff after spending three years as the secondary coach at Liberal High School where he helped the team to a mark of 37-5 in his time.

Brown, a native of Liberal, Kan., is a 1996 graduate of Pittsburg State University where he recorded 470 tackles in 43 starts in his career at free safety. He is one of only three Gorillas to earn All-American honors three times. He was a unanimous All-American First Team selection his senior season and was named the CNN Division II National Player of the Year in 1995. He was also named to the NCAA Quarter Century Team for all players from 1975 to 1999 at free safety. He had a record 21 tackles in the NCAA Division II National Championship as a freshman against Jacksonville State. Brown was inducted into the Pittsburg State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2006.

He and his wife, Daphne, have two sons, Hunter and Hayden.
