Speaker Biographies

MOLST:

Gail Mansell, a native of Toronto, Canada, has lived in Maryland for over 40 years, and on the Eastern Shore of Maryland since 1987. Gail's training has included eight extended units of Clinical Pastoral Education and a course in prison ministry. She is certified by the College of Pastoral Supervision & Psychotherapy as a Board Certified Clinical Chaplain & Pastoral Counselor. She is also certified as a Fellow with the American Psychotherapy Association, and the Maryland Critical Incident Stress Management Team. Gail has a Masters in Pastoral Counseling and Thanatology: the study of death, dying, grief and bereavement. She has had extensive experience, education, and training in end-of-life care. Additionally, in 2008 Gail was hired as a part-time Pastoral Counselor for her community hospice. She has received ordination from United Christian Ministries, the International Council of Community Churches and completed her seminary training with University of the South.

CRISP:

Dov Frankel, M.D. is a physician who has worked in Emergency Rooms in the Baltimore area for over ten years. Dr. Frankel uses the CRISP program on a daily basis in order to obtain information regarding patients and to make more informed healthcare decisions. Dr. Frankel has lectured in the past for EmCare regarding emergency room issues. He has also been named a Top Doctor by Baltimore magazine.

EMTALA:

Susan Preston is an attorney in private practice in the Baltimore, Maryland area for over twenty five years. Ms. Preston has spent her career defending medical malpractice cases throughout the State of Maryland and is recognized as one of the top attorneys in her field. Ms. Preston has tried numerous cases to verdict and won many trials on behalf of her clients.
