Terms of Agreement

Hold Harmless Agreement: The Cultural Activities Center agrees to use reasonable care in the display, protections and security of the artwork that is on display. The artists and/or their representatives do by this agreement hold the Cultural Activities harmless and free of responsibility for any damage or loss that may occur during the display of the artwork at the Cultural Activities Center and during all other community exhibitions. Artists are responsible for shipping artwork to/from CAC. All artwork remaining at the CAC after 90 days will be disposed of at the CAC's discretion.

Sale of Artwork: Artists are required to provide pricing for and a description of all works they wish to sell. A 35% commission will be assessed on works sold to cover commission during the exhibit at the Cultural Activities Center. A representative of the Cultural Activities Center will assist in all negotiations for sale of artwork. Checks for sales made during the exhibition at the Cultural Activities Center should be made payable to the Cultural Activities Center.
