

"Keep Your Crown On"

If you know Jesus, you are God's adopted daughter and you wear a crown. But life doesn't always treat you like a princess, and it can be easy to lose sight of who you really are. Sometimes, the world tries to cover up your crown with other hats, or even a dunce cap. Marchauna Rodgers wants to encourage you to embrace your inner princess and learn what it means to 'keep your crown on'.

- SESSION ONE:

"A Shield-maiden of Heaven"

- SESSION TWO:

"Keep Your Crown On!"

Ephesians 2:11-13, 19

- SESSION THREE:

"Keep Your Sword Sharp" What it means to be a shield maiden for our King Genesis 2:18

- SESSION FOUR:

"Know your Enemy" Ephesians 6:12

- SESSION FIVE:

"Stay Connected to Your King"

Ephesians 5:18

Marchauna grew up as her father's only son, learning to hunt, fish, and clean guns rather than cook, clean house, or do laundry. That has made marriage interesting at times, but she has been married to her Prince Charming (otherwise known as Chris) for twenty years and their house hasn't been condemned yet... Marchauna is also the mother of eight precious children between the ages of three and nineteen (even though she never planned to have children), and has the privilege of serving with Cru City in Spokane. After achieving her childhood dream of becoming a nurse, Marchauna headed out (with great enthusiasm and naivety) to serve God with her whole heart. God has taken her on a very different journey than she had planned; one that, now, she wouldn't trade for the world.

Marchauna takes special delight in encouraging women of all ages to be good theologians, to recognize their calling as shield maidens for Jesus, and to embrace their identity as Daughters of The King.
