- A list of all English courses taken (current and past) and instructors.
- A personal statement (300 words, more or less) addressing the question: What are your qualifications for this scholarship and what do you hope to do with your English major in your future life?
- A writing sample—this should be no more than 15 pages of your best writing.
- A current copy of your UAccess Advisement Report.

Applications are due on Friday, November 20, 2015

You may apply for both English and Creative Writing scholarships if you are a double major or major/minor. Please fill out only the section(s) below that pertain to you. This is the only application form you will need to submit; all English scholarship applicants will be considered for all scholarships and prizes.

Directions for Including Writing Samples:

Work that has already been submitted as part of a successful scholarship application may not be submitted with this application. Your name should not appear anywhere on the writing sample(s) you submit; please put the title on each page of the sample.

III. CREATIVE WRITING AWARDS

I am a Creative Writing major or minor, and would like to apply for the CREATIVE WRITING AWARDS.

I am applying for an award in (please circle): FICTION POETRY CREATIVE NONFICTION

In support of your application, please attach the following:

- If applying for fiction awards: one short story not to exceed 25 pages.
- If applying for poetry awards: up to three poems not to exceed 7 pages.
- If applying for nonfiction awards: one nonfiction work not to exceed 25 pages.

IV. ENGLISH SCHOLARSHIPS

I am an English major or minor, and would like to apply for the ENGLISH SCHOLARSHIPS.

In support of your application, please attach the following:

- A writing sample of no more than 15 pages that represents your best critical work as a student of English.
- Writing sample should not be a work of poetry, fiction, or non-fiction, as Creative Writing scholarships are handled separately. (See Section III.)

Title of Submission(s): _____

Return your application packet in hard copy—including this application, writing sample, list of English courses, personal statement, Advisement Report, and letter(s) of recommendation—to the English Undergraduate Advising Office in ML 445 no later than 4:00pm on Friday, November 20, 2015. Please do not use files or folders; use a staple, binder clip, or paper clip only.
