Pastor Joe's column

It's on our phones. It's in our homes. It's at the center of our altar table in the front of our sanctuary. It's The Bible.

John Wesley would want us as Christians to be "people of The Book," even "people of One Book." It's The Bible.

Our United Methodist denomination will make the news with several big splashes this month. Our General Conference meets in Portland the middle of May, and there are several key, even divisive, issues to come before that august body. Changes will be considered for our Book of Discipline...our church polity...how we do things ... who we are.

In addition to praying for all involved in General Conference, I invite you to join me in seeing all that happens (or doesn't happen...!) from the perspective of a song we sang this morning in a nursing home Bible Study: "Standing on the Promises."

We find those "promises of Christ (our) Savior" in one place. It's The Bible.

I've been waiting to use the following lengthy quote for quite some time now. It's by a David Noebel, who presents a list of five reasons why our Bibles are important. Here's his first:

The Bible is a part of world literature. How do we know the Bible is a part of world literature? If you look inside Bartlett's Book of Quotations, you'll find pages and pages and pages of quotes from the Bible, and Bartlett's Book of Quotations is a collection of quotes from world literature. (I contend if you ever have to go to jail and they won't let you take your Bible, just ask for a copy of Bartlett's Book of Quotations. You'll still get most of the key verses in the Bible from Bartlett's Book of Quotations.)

But here's another reason: Richard Dawkins says you should. Richard Dawkins is the number-one atheist in the world today, and he said, "I want all our children to read the King James Bible." Not for moral training, Dawkins was clear about that, but because it's great literature.

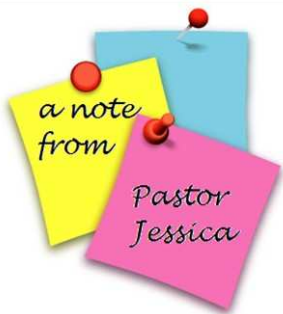

Somebody say Amen. I'll see you in worship if not before --- in worship, where Pastor Jessica and I will be preaching from this one particular book: it's The Bible.

Yours in Christ,

Dr. Joe Scheets

In April my dad took my little sister and I on trip to Kansas City for a couple of days. We enjoyed some great KC barbecue, some shopping and some great time together but the real reason we went was to see the a cappella group, Pentatonix perform at the Sprint Center in downtown Kansas City. We stood just a few feet from the stage and my sister got to go on stage with four others during one of Pentatonix's songs. It was an incredible show that ended with the group singing their song "Sing." The song is upbeat and fun, and makes you want to dance, and sing! The lyrics are beautiful, reminding us of the power of music in our lives.

(verse 1) It doesn't matter if your days are long (Sing!)
It doesn't matter if your night's gone wrong (Sing!)
Just clap your hands and stomp your feet and sing it (Whoa, sing!)
It doesn't matter if he let you go (Sing!)
It doesn't matter if she hurt you so (Sing!)
Get up and dance, just feel that beat and sing it (Whoa, sing!)

I don't know what you've been told but music make you lose control

(chorus) Sing, sing, sing, sing, sing it out as hard as you can Make 'em hear ya from LA to Japan
Don't let 'em bring you down, this is how we do it now
Go and roll them windows down and sing, sing, sing, sing
Sing it with your hands in the sky light it up like it's the 4th of July
Don't let 'em bring you down, you know what I'm talking 'bout
A little bit louder now

Music has the power to bring up our spirits when we're down, to move us to joy, and to dancing. That's exactly what "Sing" is about. Music is something that is also an important part of our lives as followers of Christ. The psalmist writes:

Sing to the Lord a new song because he has done wonderful things! Shout triumphantly to the Lord, all the earth! Be happy! Rejoice out loud! Sing your praises! Sing your praises to the Lord with the lyre—with the lyre and the sound of music. With trumpets and a horn blast, shout triumphantly before the Lord, the king! Psalm 98:1a, 4-6

Music is a way of expressing our praise and thanksgiving to God for all that God has done, is doing and will do in our lives. Music is a way of proclaiming God is Lord and King in our lives. Music is a gift we've been given to move us, to set our feet dancing, and to help us express praise and thanks.

May we continue to "Sing, sing, sing, sing, sing it out as hard as [we] can" our praises to God as we give thanks for all God is to us and the continued gifts of love, peace and grace we experience every day.

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Jessica

The youth group kicked off April with a splash, quite literally, as we held our first ever cardboard boat regatta out at Lake Sara. Farina UMC's youth group joined our group as the youth raced their cardboard creations through the water. We had a wonderful time and hope to make this an annual event and involve even more youth groups in the area. Thank you to everyone who helped to build boats, donate cardboard, and who came to cheer on the youth. The second weekend in April four youth and nine adults from Centenary traveled to Little Grassy United Methodist Camp for a weekend mission trip where we cleared brush, fixed a roof and a road sign, and lots of other things that will help the camp be ready for campers this summer. On April 16 and 17 many of our youth participated in worship during our youth worship services as we heard about Cassidy Awalt's trip to Israel. On April 17th we enjoyed the beautiful warm weather with water balloon games outside and began a series on difficult topics. Our final meeting of the month was a Mission Sunday and we heard from Larry Lappin about Habitat for Humanity. All of this would not have been possible without the incredible youth of Centenary and their parents and others who volunteer on a regular basis. Thank you to you all!

There are just three more meetings of the school year and we hope you can join us!

May 1st 5:30-7:30pm – Youth Group Meeting at the Church
Jr. High & Sr. High: When Christians Get It Wrong: Christians, Science & Politics

May 8th – No Meeting – Happy Mother's Day!

May 15th 5:30-7:30pm – Youth Group Meeting at the Church
Jr. High & Sr. High: When Christians Get It Wrong: Other Religions

May 22nd – No Meeting – High School Graduation

May 29th – No Meeting – Memorial Day Weekend

June 5th 5:00-8:00pm – End of the School Year Youth Group Cookout at the Church
Join us for a cookout and water games at the church as we kick off the summer.

There are several ways to stay up to date on Youth Group Happenings:

- Check out the schedule at <http://www.effinghamcumc.com/YouthGroup>
- Like our Facebook page Centenary UMC Youth
- Follow us on Twitter @cumceffingham

Confirmation Meetings in May

May 4th from 6:30-8pm: Confirmation in the Youth Room

May 11th from 6:30-8pm: Confirmation in the Youth Room

Confirmation Sunday will be May 15th at our 9:00am worship service. Join us as we celebrate our confirmands and welcome them as new members of Centenary United Methodist Church!

Are you in third, fourth or fifth grade? You're invited to join us on the third Sunday of the month from 2-3pm for our Junior Youth Group. We will have a fun activity or game, a Bible lesson and a snack.

In April we talked about Jesus' parable of the sower and we planted flowers to give away to others as an expression of the love of God. We also made our own dirt cups from chocolate and enjoyed our garden snack!

Join us Sunday, May 22nd from 2-3pm for our next meeting. We will be talking about the joy and playing soccer croquet and noodle ball outside! Come and bring a friend!

As we continue on with our Junior Youth Group, we will need parent volunteers to help at the meetings each month. If you are interested in helping please let Pastor Jessica know. (jessica@effinghamcumc.com)

This is in response to our Christmas Offering:

Dear Rev. Scheets and the Centenary Church Family:

Grace and Peace to you in this Holy Season of Lent!

Thank you very much for your generous gift of $1,210.50, which you have designated for the Africa University Endowment Fund. You will be pleased to know that the permanent endowment now totals approximately $65 million. The interest income and earnings thereon provide needed scholarships and other financial assistance for our students as well as meet new and emerging needs of the institution.

I am also pleased to share with you that for the current academic year, Africa University has an enrollment of 1,415 students, representing 26 of the 55 nations of Africa. Young women represent 53% of the student enrollment.

In twenty-four (24) short years, United Methodists have built a debt-free first-class, first-rate institution of higher learning at the foot of Mt. Chiremba, in the Valley of Hope, at Old Mutare, Zimbabwe. You will be pleased to know that Africa University was recently rated #3 and #4 in the 2015 rankings of best universities in Zimbabwe. We hope to see you on the campus next year for the 25th anniversary celebration!

PEACE!

Elaine Jenkins, JD—Director of Planned Giving

May UMW Book

IN DEFENSE OF FOOD:

An Eater's Manifesto

Michael Pollan LARGE PRINT Social Action 329 pages

Eat Food. Not too much. Mostly plants. Pollan argues that humans used to know how to eat well. But the balanced dietary lessons that were once passed down through generations have been confused, complicated and distorted by food marketers, nutritionists and journalists who all have something to gain.

Pollan's manifesto shows us how to recover a more balanced and pleasurable approach to food. You can check out Mr. Pollan on your computer and see some of his videos on food.

Legacy Fund - 150th Anniversary

Our foremothers remembered us and made it possible for United Methodist Women to continue after 1869.

Now it is our time to remember our daughters and granddaughters guaranteeing the continuation of United Methodist Women for another 150 years. While any amount is welcome, every member is invited to contribute to the Legacy Fund between 2015 and 2019. We ask you to consider commemorating the year UMW foremothers first organized for mission with gifts in increments of -1869 - $18.69, $186.90, $1869, etc. or honoring UMW's years of service with gifts in increments of 150 - $15, $150, $1500.

A Day of Giving kickoff was held on March 23, 2015 and the gifts totaled nearly $100,000. So far, our conference has pledged $12,392.49 of which $1,477.38 has been received by the National Office.

Remember a special person and give to the Legacy Fund which will ensure support for core expenses of being in mission and allow your Mission Giving Dollars to connect more directly with women, children and youth. Give proudly and wear a 150 pin announcing that you are a member of the Legacy Fund.

Supported by the United Methodist Women of Centenary United Methodist Church, Effingham, Il.

Contact the church office or send donations to the church office to help in this worthy cause.

Esther Unit of UMW

May UMW Meeting

Esther Unit of UMW will meet Wednesday, May 4, 1:00pm, in the Meeting Room at Centenary. Eileen Cumming will have the devotion for this meeting, and Beth Wattlelet will be our hostess. Peggy Peters will have the lesson.

Esther Unit of UMW meets the first Wednesday of each month March - December, and all ladies from Centenary are invited to join us for a time of study, fellowship, and refreshments.

Sunday School is for EVERYBODY!

10:15 a.m. - 11:15 a.m.

Recycling Opportunity

Esther Unit of UMW is participating in the Embarras River District UMW recycling project to collect items which we cannot recycle locally. This is an ongoing project this year, and we are collecting the following items:

- cancelled postage stamps
- prescription bottles with the labels removed
- old cell phones
- old tennis shoes (old, dirty tennis shoes are ground up and used to make road pack and tennis courts.)
- plastic caps not recycled by other means

The collection boxes will be in the Connection area.

Unglued

by Lisa Terkeurst

Lysa TerKeurst admits that she, like most women, has experiences where others bump into her “happy” causing her to come emotionally unglued.

What do we often do with our raw emotions? We stuff, we explode, or react somewhere in between. Is it really possible to make emotions work for us instead of against us? Her answer is yes, and in her usual inspiring and practical way, Lysa shows you how.

Filled with gut-honest personal examples and Biblical teaching, Unglued will equip you to know with confidence how to

- Resolve conflict in your important relationships
- Find peace in your most difficult relationships as you learn to be honest but kind when offended
- Identify what type of reactor you are and how to significantly improve your communication
- Respond with no regrets by managing your tendencies to stuff, explode or react somewhere in between
- And how to gain a deep sense of calm by responding to situations out of your control without acting out of control.

Anyone interested in knowing more or have questions can contact Julie Howard at jhoward59@gmail.com.

Food For Catholic Charities

We collect food for Catholic Charities each month to help them supply food to those in need in our area. Please bring your donation to the Mission Room at church any weekend, and on the third Monday of the month we will deliver our donations to them. (if you are dropping off food at Catholic Charities, they are closed from 11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.)

Since we will be collecting all month, our hope is that more people will participate. We are looking forward to seeing a mound of food.

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING THIS MISSION PROJECT.
