Story Web

The diagram is a story web. At the top center is a rectangular box containing the text "Story Title" and "Author" on two separate lines. Below this central box is a vertical line that connects to a horizontal line. From the ends of this horizontal line, two diagonal lines extend outwards to the top corners of a central rectangular box labeled "Events". From the top corners of the "Events" box, two diagonal lines extend outwards to the bottom corners of a larger rectangular box labeled "Story Title" and "Author". From the bottom corners of this larger box, two diagonal lines extend outwards to the top corners of two rectangular boxes: "Characters" on the left and "Setting" on the right. From the bottom corners of the "Characters" and "Setting" boxes, two diagonal lines extend outwards to the top corners of a large rectangular box labeled "Problem". From the bottom corners of the "Problem" box, two diagonal lines extend outwards to the top corners of a large rectangular box labeled "Solution".
