Authorising a person or organisation to enquire or act on your behalf

Purpose of this form	To arrange for another person or organisation to enquire or act on your behalf when dealing with the Australian Government Department of Human Services about Centrelink payments and services.
	The arrangements you can make are for a:
	 Person Permitted to Enquire — this arrangement authorises a person or organisation to make limited enquiries only on your behalf
	 Correspondence Nominee — this arrangement authorises a person or organisation to receive copies of your Centrelink mail and to enquire, act and make changes on your behalf
	 Payment Nominee — this arrangement authorises a person or organisation to receive your payments on your behalf
	• BOTH Payment and Correspondence Nominee — this arrangement authorises a person or organisation to enquire, act and make changes AND receive your payments on your behalf.
	How many arrangements can you authorise on this form?
	Only one person or organisation can be authorised on this form.
	You can only have one Correspondence Nominee and one Payment Nominee, however, they do not have to be the same person or organisation. You cannot nominate a person to act or receive payments on your behalf if that person has a Centrelink nominee arrangement in place.
	If you wish to arrange to have a different Correspondence Nominee to your Payment Nominee, you will need to complete a separate form for each.
	A separate form will also be required if you want to change your nominee arrangement.
	IMPORTANT: Authorising a person or organisation to enquire, act on your behalf or receive your payment does not take away your right to deal with us about your Centrelink business. This authorisation can be cancelled or changed at any time, unless it is a court appointed arrangement.
Filling in this form	Please use black or blue pen.
	Print in BLOCK LETTERS.
	 Mark boxes like this □ with a ✓ or ✗.
	 Where you see a box like this Go to 5 skip to the question number shown. You do not need to answer the questions in between.
Returning your form	Check that you have answered all the questions you need to answer, and that you have signed and dated this form.
	This form and all additional documents, including proof of your nominee's identity, are to be returned to one of our Service Centres.
Person Permitted to Enquire	A Person Permitted to Enquire can be a partner, a friend, a family member, a professional, an organisation or a combination depending on the type of enquiry. Some examples of professionals and organisations are accountants, financial advisers, social workers, doctors, etc. This list is not limited. You can change this arrangement at any time.
	What type of access can the Person Permitted to Enquire have
	It is your responsibility to ensure that the person you have given authority to make enquiries on your behalf is aware of what you are allowing them to enquire about, and any limitation you may place on this authority. We can provide information that is necessary to satisfy the enquiry and no more. Continued

	Please keep these Notes (pages 1 to 4) for your information.

	The extent of information we can provide to a Person Permitted to Enquire may include the current rate of your Centrelink payment, cancellation or rejection reasons to your payment, factors affecting your payment for example assets and income, overpayment and arrears information. If we have any doubt about the person's authority to make an enquiry on your behalf, the enquiry will not be answered until clarification is obtained from you.
Nominee obligations and responsibilities	 Correspondence Nominee A correspondence nominee can act on your behalf and is authorised to deal with us on all Centrelink matters (except payment destination). These include: making changes to your information enquiring on your behalf completing Centrelink forms/applications on your behalf receiving copies of your Centrelink mail attending Centrelink appointments with you or on your behalf (if appropriate). A correspondence nominee is required to: advise us of any changes in your circumstances within 14 days (28 days if outside Australia) respond to notices if required to do so, including reporting notifiable events and must be aware that failure to respond to a notice means that you have failed to meet your obligations act in your best interests advise us of any changes that may affect their ongoing ability as a nominee. Payment Nominee A payment nominee will receive your Centrelink payments and ensure: payments are used exclusively for your benefit records of payments received and the money he/she spends on your behalf are kept. We can review the arrangement from time to time and request the nominee to provide this information. Penalties may apply if the information is not provided they act in your best interests we are advised of any changes that may affect their ongoing ability as a nominee.
Online Services	 Nominees can register for Online Services so they can view or update your information. Our Online Services provides a secure and convenient way to do Centrelink business via the internet, using Customer Online Services or Business Online Services. Through these services your nominee can: view your personal and payment relation information print an Income Statement apply for an Advance Payment on your behalf update your contact details report your employment income view your payment history receive and view your letter receive an email or SMS notification that a new online letter has been sent.
Privacy and your personal information	Centrelink, Medicare Australia, Child Support and CRS Australia are services within the Australian Government Department of Human Services (Human Services). Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988 . Your information is collected for Social Security, Family Assistance, Medicare, Child Support and CRS purposes. This information may be required by the powers provided within each services' legislation or voluntarily given by you when you apply for services or payments. Your information will be used for the assessment and administration of payments and services.
