HOME LIBRARY SERVICE

Do you enjoy reading?

Do you have difficulty getting to the library?

Would getting books delivered be helpful?

Answer YES to any of the above and the library could come to you!

FREE OF CHARGE

HOME LIBRARY SERVICE

Although aimed at people who have mobility problems or other health issues that prevent regular visits to the library, we also take into consideration other situations eg; carers or people suffering from a short term debilitating illness.

There is a weekly delivery in the Kirkwall, St.Ola and Stromness areas, and a 4 weekly delivery in Mainland parishes and the linked South Isles.

This service is FREE of charge!

Website: www.orkneylibrary.org.uk

We can provide books in various formats including; large print or audiobooks.* Readers can let us know their particular interests or favourite authors, or they can request specific titles so that we can tailor each selection and quantity to your personal requirement.

So if you think you are interested, or if you know someone who may benefit from the service, please phone Kirkwall (01856 873166) or Stromness (01856 850907) or call in and speak to a member of staff who will be happy to help.

Alternatively fill in the form opposite and hand this in to either Kirkwall, Stromness or to the Mobile and someone will contact you.

*Did you know that we now stock ebooks? These can be downloaded to your computer, tablet, ebook reader or smartphone. Check our website or ask staff for details.
