Christmas Appeal 2015

Dear Friends of the Missionaries of Africa,

This past year has been a tumultuous one for many people in Africa. There have been floods and droughts that have taken many lives and caused much misery. Wars and terrorist attacks have taken their toll and created fear and insecurity in Tunisia, Libya, Algeria, Mali, Nigeria, Kenya, Ghana and Mozambique; to name only some of those countries affected.

We have seen some of the victims of these tragedies on our TV screens arriving on the shores of the Mediterranean and at Calais. We cannot avoid being affected by their tragic stories. These parents and their children, these young people, have suffered unimaginable horrors, risking life and limb to escape from other unimaginable horrors in their homeland. They land on our shores seeking succour and welcome. We can do nothing else but welcome them and give them a secure place amongst us.

Christmas reminds us that Jesus himself, with his Mother and St. Joseph, was a refugee. They had to flee the horrors of the massacre of the first born to find succour and a welcome in the foreign land of Egypt. Let us have the same sentiments for those who end up on our shores, asking to come in and find a welcome in our land, as we have for the Holy Family of Nazareth in their flight to a secure place in Egypt.

I would like to give heart-felt thanks to all of you who support us in our mission and especially to those of you who make an effort to contribute to this Christmas Appeal. With your help, we too will do what we can, within the continent of Africa and without, to bring relief and succour and, above all, hope to those who find themselves in such desperate situations. Thank you a thousand times.

May God, who became a refugee among us at Christmas, bless you all. May God bless your families. And may God grant you a very Happy, Holy and Peaceful Christmas.

Terry Madden
