COMPANY DISCLOSURE AND POLICY INFORMATION

We do not offer refunds on canceled camps. A future camp credit will be provided if you decide to cancel or are unable to make it to the camp for any reason. In the event of a camp cancellation due to inclement weather, a credit to any MIT offering will be provided equal to the amount paid for the original service.

The credit is valid for 1 year from the event date at any of our camps, clinics or prospect events. Credit is transferable to family members or friends, and is good for all future MIT events.

All position players should bring a bat and glove. Look like a baseball player by wearing a hat, jersey, belt, baseball socks, cleats. All players should bring a pair of running shoes and a jacket. If you are a catcher, have your own gear. Hitters, bring your bat and helmet. Put your name on all personal items. MIT will not be held responsible for lost or stolen items.

Lunches will be provided on the last day of the camps only. Each player will need to bring a lunch and snacks on each day of the camp minus the last.

If you take medications for any conditions they must be brought to the event and MIT Staff must be notified of the condition and medication(s). Notification can be provided at the bottom of this form.

Attendees of MIT offerings are required to bring a positive attitude and strong work ethic. Any behavior or actions posing threats to oneself or other attendees puts the said offender at risk of being removed from the event without refund.

I hereby authorize MIT Baseball Academy to act for me in any emergency. I waive and release all liability for injuries or illnesses sustained during participation in the MIT Baseball Academy camps. I understand participation in athletic events can be dangerous and the possibility of injury exists. I give my permission for action pictures etc. to be used in advertising without modeling fees being paid.
