Beacon Award for Pioneering Philanthropy Nomination Form

Please save this form to your own system before you begin to complete it. Applications must be completed electronically. Nominations can only be made in respect of individuals, not foundations or other entities. You may not nominate yourself.

Nominees who, in the opinion of the judges, meet the general and category-specific criteria will be awarded the status of Beacon Fellow. They will be invited to participate in events and asked to agree to publicity being given to their philanthropic activity. Please do not nominate anyone whom you consider would be reluctant to participate in this way.

We will not contact nominees unless they are to be awarded the status of Beacon Fellow.

The Beacon Award for Pioneering Philanthropy

This award celebrates the work of an individual, family or small group of individuals working collaboratively, who through their giving have demonstrated an original approach in meeting a social, environmental or charitable cause.

To be eligible in this category your nominee(s) MUST:
- be a donor or donors;
- live or work in the UK, Republic of Ireland, Channel Islands or Isle of Man – this requirement will not apply if the activity of your nominee(s) takes place in the UK.

What we are looking for
Through their giving your nominee(s) will have demonstrated an original approach in addressing a social, environmental or charitable cause or causes to make a sustainable difference, for example through new technology or an innovative approach.
