

Feasts in S.D.A. History?

Perspectives on Feast-keeping from the Founders of Seventh-day Adventism

Have you ever been asked the question, "Why do we need to keep or study the feasts when they were all done away with at the Cross?" With the Spring Feasts just around the corner, this is a question that we hear quite often, especially from our Adventist brothers and sisters. So, how do you answer such a question when you are asked?

Having provided materials and sermons prayerfully answering this question from Scripture, we have not really addressed this question from Seventh-day Adventist Church history. Yet, sharing the SDA church founders' teachings on Sabbath and Feast-keeping is a vital aid in ministry to our Adventist brethren. Current SDA church leadership largely works to refute Feast-keeping, as a false and non-SDA doctrine. Thus, documenting the pro-feast-keeping teachings of the SDA church founding fathers is especially compelling.

Recently, the importance of presenting feast-keeping as part of early SDA church history came to our attention. A friend of Lighted Way Ministries forwarded an email to us from the "Daniel and Revelation Committee Series" volume 5. "Doctrine of the Sanctuary – A Historical Survey" copyright by the Biblical Research Institute (BRI) in 1989. On page 30, is found the following snippet from church history:

"While affirming that "righteousness comes not by the law but by faith in the promises [of YHWH]," Crosier's article advocated the relevance of the law of Moses for the period after the Disappointment. He began by modifying the seventh-month movement position by the typological significance of the spring Jewish festivals. The complete fulfillment of these festivals, he said, did not take place at a point of time at the First Advent. The incarnation of Christ was only the beginning of their antitypical fulfillment which would not be completed until the end of the "gospel dispensation" at the Second Advent."

For those of you who may not know, Owen Russell Loomis Crosier, usually referred to as O.R.L. Crosier, (1820-1913) was a Millerite preacher and editor from New York. He collaborated with Hiram Edson and Dr. Hahn in publishing a small paper. A significant figure in SDA church history, Crosier is credited with the SDA Church Sanctuary Doctrine. He is also quietly remembered for speaking out against the "shut door" doctrine, which many early Seventh-day Adventist pioneers believed.

It seems that the Biblical Research Institute's e-mail, which inspired this newsletter article, was prompted by the circulation of a paper by Norman Bradley entitled, "Exposing the Skeleton in the SDA Closet of 1888," in which Elder Bradley mentions Crosier's article. If you have not seen Norman Bradley's paper, we will be happy to send a copy to you. It is an excellent and thorough study of this little-known piece of SDA History; revealing, far more deeply than this newsletter, the original, SDA, pro-Feast, Church view.

As interesting as its content is the story of how Crosier's article came to be written. This article, quoted by the Biblical Research Institute and Elder Bradley, is rooted in the infamous Great Disappointment of 1844. The day after the Great Disappointment of October 22, 1844, Hiram Edson received an inspiration from YHWH which explained that the Millerites' error was not in the date of the Atonement, but in the event. Following this insight, Crosier joined with Hiram Edson and Dr. F.B. Hahn in a two-year study of the sanctuary and its cleansing. Of the three men, Crosier was selected to write out their findings.

This four-part article was published in the Day-Star Extra – volume 9, February 7, 1846. The article, written in 1846, can be viewed on the Whitespeed CD.

In this newsletter, we will share excerpts from Crosier's article to unveil what YHWH revealed to many Seventh Day Adventist pioneers, during and just after the Great Disappointment. It may surprise our Adventist brethren to learn that the teachings against the annual Sabbaths, which are considered "Adventist" today, do not align with the doctrines of our forefathers.

Notably, Mrs. Ellen G. White herself promoted and unequivocally endorsed Elder Crosier's article and the teachings it contained.

This statement by Mrs. White is recorded in A Word to the Little Flock, p. 12 (emphasis added):

"The Lord shewed me in vision, more than one year ago, that Brother Crosier had the true light, on the cleansing of the Sanctuary, & etcetera; and that it was His will, that Brother C. should write out the view which he gave us in the Day-Star, Extra, February 7, 1846. I feel fully authorized by the Lord, to recommend that Extra, to every saint."

Significantly, Ellen White (at that time she was Ellen Harmon), is stating that every saint should read this article, because Brother Crosier had the true light on this subject! Mrs. White's reference to "etcetera" is especially noteworthy because Brother Crosier not only wrote about the Sanctuary (as she clearly states), in this article he also wrote about the "Law of Moses" and the "Legal Types and Antitypes" showing application of the Feasts after the Cross. These topics were contained in the first two parts of Brother Crosier's article.

Considering their critical importance in demonstrating the original SDA beliefs, it is greatly unfortunate that these first two parts of Brother Crosier's article, are often omitted in current reprints. However, make no mistake, the validity of feast-keeping for Christians after Calvary was definitely presented in the first two parts of Crosier's article. And all four "sections" of his article were included in the Day-Star Extra dated February 7, 1846, of which Ellen Harmon (White) felt authorized by the Lord, to recommend to EVERY saint.

So saints, let's take a look at some of this article, and see what was being promoted (parenthetical notes throughout are supplied).

To give us a starting point, Brother Crosier quotes from Malachi 4:4, "Remember ye the Law of Moses, My servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments."

The commandment of this verse to remember the Law of Moses, is the last one in the Old Testament, and is given in connection with a prophetic description of "the great and dreadful day of the Lord," as though the Law contained something further descriptive of that day. Perhaps we have paid too little attention to the Law, not seeing its import and the light it was designed to shed on "the good things to come." Our Savior and the apostles taught from Moses as well as the prophets "the things concerning Himself.

...The Law should be studied and "remembered" as a simplified model of the great system of redemption, containing symbolic representations of the work begun by our Savior at his first Advent, when He "came to fulfill the Law," and to be completed in "the redemption of the purchased possession unto the praise of His glory." Redemption is deliverance purchased by the payment of a ransom, hence it cannot be complete till man and the earth shall be delivered from the subjection and consequences of sin; the last act of deliverance will be at the end of the 1000 years. To this the shadow of the Law extended. That the significance of the Law reaches beyond the first Advent is evident from these considerations:

1. The cleansing of the Sanctuary formed a part of the legal service, (Lev. 16: 20: 33,) and its antitype was not to be cleansed till the end of the 2300 days; Dan 8:14.
2. The Sabbaths under the Law typify the great Sabbath, the seventh millennium; Heb. 4:3.
3. The Jubilee typifies the release and return to their possessions of all captive Israel, this cannot be fulfilled till the resurrection of the just.

4. The autumnal types (fall feasts) were none of them fulfilled at the first Advent (Messiah's Birth, Life, Ministry, Death, or Resurrection).
5. The legal tenth Day of Atonement was not, neither could it be, fulfilled at that time (Messiah's first Advent).

...after His Resurrection, both He and His apostles made use of the Law in proof of His Messiahship. He was buried and arose, and shed down the Holy Ghost in direct fulfillment of the types, which would not have been the case if the significance of the Law had terminated at the Cross. In fact His anointing and crucifixion were only the beginning of its (Law) fulfillment, as being the beginning of that great system of redemption whose shadows were contained in the Law...

...There are two classes of yearly types -- the Vernal and the Autumnal; Lev. 23. The former met their antitypes at the first Advent, but the latter are to be fulfilled in connection with and after the Second Advent...

The Vernal types were the Passover, 14th (day of the) 1st month, the Feast of Unleavened Bread, 15th to 22nd (days of the) 1st month, waving of the First Fruits, and the Feast of Weeks or Pentecost, 50 days after (First Fruits in) the 3rd month. Lev. 23:1-21.

Our Savior was scrupulously precise in (commencing) their fulfillment at the very times they were respectively observed under the Law... But we have evidently erred in circumscribing the latitude of their fulfillment, they being fulfilled during the Gospel Dispensation.

Clearly, Brother Crosier believed and taught that the feasts were always fulfilled on their exact date. He also pointed out that even the Spring Feasts would not be completely fulfilled until the End of Time...

Going on to point out the past, present, and future significance of the Spring Feasts, Crosier explained (quoting the verses shown below):

The (significance of the) Passover:

1 Corinthians 15:3 "For I delivered unto you first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures."

1 Corinthians 5:7 "Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us."

Paul considered it of the first importance to deliver unto us the fact that Christ died for our sins in fulfillment of the slaying of the Paschal lamb. This he received from the Law, though the Law nowhere says the words that His Crucifixion should be the antitype of slaying the Paschal lamb; yet so clear was the fulfillment that it furnished unanswerable proof that (Yahshua) was the Messiah.

The Jews could not lay hands on Him till His hour had come, then, being "brought as a lamb to the slaughter," He expired, "our Passover," in the very month, day, and hour, of slaying the legal Passover. It is ascertained that the Paschal antitype began at the Crucifixion; but where must it end? Let the Savior answer. Luke 22:15-18 "And He said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer; for I say unto you I will not any more eat thereof till it be fulfilled in the Kingdom of God."

... The Paschal feast must be "fulfilled in the Kingdom of God," which according to ver. 18, was then and is yet to "come." The Paschal antitype is not finished... One extreme of the Paschal antitype is His death, and the other His second coming, hence it spans and is fulfilled during the Gospel Dispensation.

Crosier next revealed the significance of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, First Fruits, and Pentecost in the past, present, and future:

The Feast of Unleavened Bread, in the antitype appears to run parallel with the Paschal antitype. 1 Cor. 5: 7, 8; "Purge out therefore, the old leaven that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the Unleavened Bread of sincerity and truth."

The type was carnal, the bread made of grains, the antitype spiritual, the Bread is Truth, the Word of (YHWH) received in sincerity. The bitter herbs with which it was eaten seem fitly to typify the afflictive trials of Christians in this state... But they will end and the Bible be superseded "when the Chief Shepherd shall appear" and gather the "flock of slaughter" with joy to our beloved Zion.

First Fruits... was a handful of the first ripe fruit or grain. 1 Corinthians 15:4, 20 and 23; Acts. 26:23, show that Christ "rose again the third day according to the scriptures," "the first fruits of them that slept," thus laying the foundation of the Resurrection to life.

(First Fruits) appear(s) to be connected with the Feast of Weeks (Pentecost), at which two loaves of the new flour baked with leaven were waved before the Lord. "When the day of Pentecost was fully come," the Holy Ghost, the principle of life, came upon the disciples. This... is the only thing recorded as the antitype of the Feast of Weeks...

It must now appear evident that the Vernal antitypes (Spring Feasts) having begun with the opening of the Gospel Dispensation will close with its close. From analogy we must conclude that the autumnal antitypes (Fall Feasts) will occupy a period of time relative to that occupied by their types in somewhat the proportion of the vernal antitypes. In other words, the period of their fulfillment must (be in the future)...

As can be clearly seen from this White-endorsed article, Crosier, Edson, and Hahn understood a lot about the future application (after the Cross) of YHWH's Feast Days.

Beyond question, the founding pioneers of the Advent movement believed and taught that the Feasts of YHWH (listed in Leviticus Chapter 23) were intended by YAH to continue to be kept as long as time should last. They were designed to carry us to the very end of the plan of redemption. Thus, the original Seventh-day Adventist doctrine regarding the feasts was that the Cross, far from being their culmination, was merely the "kick-off" point of the Feast Days of Yahweh.

Remember what Mrs. White said about Crosier's article with its teachings about the feasts? She said, "I feel fully authorized by the Lord, to recommend that Extra (Day-Star Extra), to every saint."

Ellen also pointed out that YHWH's people should expect "new light" in the Last Days. She specified that this "new light" would really be an uncovering of "old" light, lost in the dusty portals of time. Finally, Mrs. White explained that this glorious, End-Time light would come from YHWH's Law. Consider the following quotes:

There are glorious truths to come before the people of God, Testimonies, Vol. 8, pg. 322.

There are old, yet new truths still to be added to the treasures of our knowledge, Review and Herald, Feb. 25, 1890.

Wonderful possibilities are open to those who lay hold of the divine assurances of God's Word. There are glorious truths to come before the people of God. Privileges and duties which they do not even suspect to be in the Bible will be laid open before them. As they follow on in the path of humble obedience, doing His will, they will know more and more of the oracles (Law) of God, Testimonies, Vol. 8, pg. 322.

The question has been asked me, "Do you think that the Lord has any more light for us as a people?" I answer that He has light that is new to us, and yet it is precious old light that is to shine forth from the Word of Truth. We have only the glimmerings of the rays of the light that is yet to come to us... Review and Herald, June 3, 1890.

Among Seventh-day Adventists, a major concern often arises that perhaps embracing the Feasts of YHWH is rejecting the safety of "Adventism." In response, it must be noted that doctrine must always be tested against the Word. Only that which measures up to this test is kept. But it is also worthy to note, as we have demonstrated in this article, that in keeping the Feasts of YHWH, one is not rejecting SDA doctrine, rather one is returning to the original! 3

How Should We Handle YHWH's Statutes & New Light?

To continue our look at the Early Seventh-day Adventist view of the Statutes and New Light, let us take note of a few of Mrs. White's quotations in this regard. What counsel did she give to the Adventist body regarding YHWH's Law and whether or not the Light of Truth would continue to grow?

New light will ever be revealed on the word of God to him who is in living connection with the Sun of Righteousness. Let no one come to the conclusion that there is no more truth to be revealed. The diligent, prayerful seeker for truth will find precious rays of light yet to shine forth from the word of God. Many gems are yet scattered that are to be gathered together to become the property of the remnant people of God. But light is not given simply to be a strength to the church, but to be shed upon those who are in darkness. The people of God are to show forth the praises of Him who hath called them out of darkness into His marvelous light. Christ has said of His people, "Ye are the light of the world," and it is the mission of the light to shine out and illuminate the darkness. (Counsels on Sabbath School Work, p 34)

We call ourselves commandment-keeping people, but we do not comprehend the exceeding breadth of the far-reaching principles of the Law of God; we do not understand its sacred character. Many, who claim to be teachers of the truth, have no real conception of what they are doing in teaching the Law of God, because they do not have a living knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ... We shall never reach a period when there is no increased light for us. The sayings of Christ were always far-reaching in their import. Those who heard His teachings with their preconceived opinions, could not take in the meaning attached to His utterances. Jesus was the source, the originator of truth. The great themes of the Old Testament were misapprehended and misinterpreted, and Christ's work was to expound the truth which had not been understood by those to whom they had been given. The prophets had made the statements, but the spiritual import of what they had written, was undiscovered by them. They did not see the meaning of the truth. Jesus reproved his disciples for their slowness of comprehension. Many of his precious lessons were lost to them, because they did not understand the spiritual grandeur of his words. But he promised that the Comforter should come, that the Spirit of truth should recall these lost utterances to their minds. He gave them to understand that he had left with them precious jewels of truth whose value they did not know. (Review and Herald, June 3, 1890)

Not only did Mrs. White tell the SDA people that we should expect much new light, especially in the Last Days, she also explained that we would need to UNLEARN many teachings and doctrines, which we had previously held as truth.

We have many lessons to learn, and many, many to unlearn. God and Heaven alone are infallible. Those who think that they will never have to give up a cherished view, never have occasion to change an opinion, will be disappointed. As long as we hold to our own ideas and opinions with determined persistency, we cannot have the unity for which Christ prayed. (Review and Herald, July 26, 1892)

Investigation of Doctrine.--There is no excuse for anyone in taking the position that there is no more truth to be revealed, and that all our expositions of Scripture are without an error. The fact that certain doctrines have been held as truth for many years by our people, is not a proof that our ideas are infallible. Age will not make error into truth, and truth can afford to be fair. No true doctrine will lose anything by close investigation. (Counsels to Writers and Editors, p. 35)

One of the key sources of the precious End-Time Light that Ellen White and the early SDA pioneers expected to come is the Law of YHWH. But the Biblical term "Law of YHWH" may not be what most think. Far from just being Exodus 20 or Deuteronomy 5, the Law of YHWH is comprised of four parts, listed by David in Psalms 19:7. These parts are: the Commandments (the Ten Commandments), the Statutes (613 statutes which further explain the Ten Commandments in detail), the Testimony (the experiences of those who have kept or disregarded YHWH's Law), and the Judgments (which are the blessings or cursings based upon the obedience, or disobedience, of YHWH's Law). The word "Law" is translated from the Hebrew word Torah, in the Old Testament. In other words, the Torah, or Law of YHWH, is the first five books of the Bible (see Strong's Concordance # H8451).

To list all of YHWH's 613 Statutes, found from Genesis to Deuteronomy, is not the purpose of this article. Such has been provided in numerous books, which list the Statutes one-by-one. Two such books are: The Statutes for the Remnant (book and workbook), by Danette Davis. The Statutes for the Remnant books are available through Lighted Way Ministries. In looking into the Statutes and learning what they are, you may be surprised at how many of YHWH's Statutes are already being kept by Christians today. For example, some of the Statutes which many Christians commonly keep include: tithing, health principles, principles of morality, and honest business practices... just to name a few...

...Yet, most Christians deal with the Statutes in "cafeteria-style," picking and choosing what they wish to validate and keep, and setting aside other Statutes as unimportant or no longer binding.

Both the Bible and Ellen White teach that all of the Statutes are still binding upon YHWH's people today. In fact, as Mrs. White pointed out, it was specifically the Statute Law which Lucifer rebelled against in Heaven, before this earth was even created. Consider the following quotation from Patriarchs and Prophets:

In great mercy, according to His divine character, God bore long with Lucifer. The spirit of discontent and disaffection had never before been known in heaven. It was a new element, strange, mysterious, unaccountable. Lucifer himself had not at first been acquainted with the real nature of his feelings; for a time he had feared to express the workings and imaginings of his mind; yet he did not dismiss them.

He did not see whither he was drifting. But such efforts as infinite love and wisdom only could devise, were made to convince him of his error. His disaffection was proved to be without cause, and he was made to see what would be the result of persisting in revolt. Lucifer was convinced that he was in the wrong. He saw that "the Lord is righteous in all His ways, and holy in all His works" (Psalm 145:17); that the divine Statutes are just, and that he ought to acknowledge them as such before all heaven. Had he done this, he might have saved himself and many angels. He had not at that time fully cast off his allegiance to God. Though he had left his position as covering cherub, yet if he had been willing to return to God, acknowledging the Creator's wisdom, and satisfied to fill the place appointed him in God's great plan, he would have been reinstated in his office. The time had come for a final decision; he must fully yield to the divine sovereignty or place himself in open rebellion. He nearly reached the decision to return, but pride forbade him. It was too great a sacrifice for one who had been so highly honored to confess that he had been in error, that his imaginings were false, and to yield to the authority which he had been working to prove unjust." (Patriarchs and Prophets, p 39)

To be a Christian means that we have become a follower of Christ. Many believe that followers of Christ should not keep the Torah, or Law. Today, it is commonly believed that Christians are to keep the forty-nine "Commands of Christ" (or just the 10 Commandments) Yet, actually, these New Testament Commands are rooted in the Law. The same Messiah, Who gave the forty-nine New Testament Commands, spoke the Ten from the smoking peaks of Sinai.

Let the followers of Christ do all that is possible to teach repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. One soul gained brings joy to the Father and to the Son, and there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of Heaven, and an anthem of praise goes up from countless harps and voices through the Heavenly courts. Those who break the Law of God, and teach others to break God's Commandments, are not following Jesus, Who says, "I have kept My Father's Commandments," they are following another leader. It was Christ's own Voice that proclaimed on Mount Sinai the Ten Commandments, and He will not countermand His Statutes (countermand means to revoke, change, or contradict...Noah Webster 1828). Satan in his rebellion in Heaven sought to find some flaw in the Law of God, in order to support his argument that the Law of God must be changed; but his efforts were in vain. He did not succeed, and after he had deceived thousands of angels, and had drawn them to his side, he was cast out of Heaven. But the Law of God was not changed in one jot or tittle. God is wise and unchangeable, and those who flatter themselves that they can find a safer rule of life than that which God has given, are deceived by the same delusions that led the angels of heaven to join the ranks of Lucifer in questioning the authority of God's Law and the justice of His Government. (Signs of the Times, November 14, 1895)

The discord which his own course had caused in Heaven, Satan charged upon the Law and Government of God. All evil he declared to be the result of the divine Administration. He claimed that it was his own object to improve upon the Statutes of Jehovah. Therefore it was necessary that he should demonstrate the nature of his claims, and show the working out of his proposed changes in the divine Law.... Satan had claimed from the first that he was not in rebellion. The whole universe must see the deceiver unmasked. (1888 Great Controversy, p 498)

Today, the same old lies about YHWH's Law are voiced among Christianity, which Satan used to deceive the angels. And just as many angels fell to this deceptive attack against YHWH's Law, so many professing Christians have been deceived into setting aside the holy Law or believing it to be nailed to the Cross.

The light esteem in which the law of God is held, even by religious leaders, has been productive of great evil. The teaching which has become so widespread, that the divine statutes are no longer binding upon men, is the same as idolatry in its effect upon the morals of the people. Those who seek to lessen the claims of God's holy Law are striking directly at the foundation of the government of families and nations. Religious parents, failing to walk in His Statutes, do not command their household to keep the way of the Lord. The Law of God is not made the...

...Rule of Life. The children, as they make homes of their own, feel under no obligation to teach their children what they themselves have never been taught. And this is why there are so many godless families; this is why depravity is so deep and widespread. (Patriarchs and Prophets, p 143)

The Law of Jehovah... was comprised in the two great principles, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. (Deut. 6:5) This is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. (Lev. 19:18) There is none other commandment greater than these." (Matthew 22:36-40) These two great principles embrace the first four commandments, showing the duty of man to God, and the last six, showing the duty of man to his fellow-man. The principles were more explicitly stated to man after the fall, and worded to meet the case of fallen intelligences. This was necessary in consequence of the minds of men being blinded by transgression.

...Christ, who went before Moses in the wilderness, made the principles of morality and religion more clear by particular precepts, specifying the duty of man to God and his fellow-men, for the purpose of protecting life, and guarding the sacred Law of God, that it should not be entirely forgotten in the midst of an apostate world.

Professed Christians now cry, Christ! Christ is our righteousness, but away with the Law. They talk and act as though Christ's mission to a fallen world was for the express purpose of nullifying his Father's Law. Could not that work have been just as well executed without the only beloved of the Father coming to this world and enduring grief, privation, and the shameful death of the cross? Ministers preach that the atonement gave men liberty to break the Law of God and to commit sin, and then praise the free grace and mercy revealed through Christ under the gospel, while they despise the Law of God.

They cast aside the restraint of the Law, and give loose rein to the corrupt passions and the promptings of the natural heart, and then triumph in the mercy and grace of the gospel. Christ speaks to such: "Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of Heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in Heaven." What is the will of the Father? That we keep His Commandments. Christ, to enforce the will of his Father, became the Author of the Statutes and Precepts given through Moses to the people of God. Christians who extol Christ, but array themselves against the Law governing the Jewish church, array Christ against Christ." (Review and Herald, May 6, 1875)

Heaven-empowered obedience to the Law of YHWH has characterized the true followers of YHWH on Heaven and on Earth in every age. Those who rebel against the Torah, are in rebellion against YHWH. Those who love and are in submission to YHWH have been forgiven for past infractions against the Torah, and demonstrate their love to YHWH by their obedience. It is no different in the last generation.

For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy [Elohim]: the Lord thy [Elohim] hath chosen thee to be a special people unto Himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth. The Lord did not set His love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people: but because the Lord loved you, and because He would keep the oath which He had sworn unto your fathers, hath the Lord brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. Know therefore that the Lord thy [Elohim], He is [YHWH], the faithful [Elohim], which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love Him and keep His Commandments to a thousand generations; and repayeth them that hate Him to their face, to destroy them: He will not be slack to him that hateth Him, He will repay him to his face. Thou shalt therefore keep the Commandments, and the Statutes, and the Judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them." Deuteronomy 7:6-11.

If YHWH's Commandments are to be binding for a thousand generations, His Law will take them into the Kingdom of Elohim into the presence of YHWH and His holy angels.

This is an argument that cannot be controverted. The Commandments of God will endure through all time and eternity. Are they, then, given us as a burden?--No. "And God commanded us to do all these Statutes, to fear the Lord our God, for our good always, that He might preserve us alive, as it is at this day" Deuteronomy 6:24. The Lord gave His people Commandments, in order that by obeying them they might preserve their physical, mental, and moral health. They were to live by obedience; but death is the sure result of the disobedience of the Law of God. (Fundamentals of Christian Education, p. 413)

Notice that Ellen White is bringing to our attention that the Commandments being referred to in Deuteronomy 6 and 7 include what we know as the Statutes. It is not just the Ten Commandments written in stone, but all the 613 Statutes found in Scripture. (see also Leviticus 27:34). It should also be noted that the whole Law (Torah) was written in stone. See Joshua 8:31-32... continued on page 7

The teaching that the Law of YHWH was initiated at Sinai gives a short-term view of YHWH's eternal Law. But the Bible teaches that sin is the transgression of the Law (1 John 3:4). Thus, the first sin, committed by Satan, long before the Earth was even formed, is evidence that the Law of YHWH existed way back before time even began on this planet. Thus, far from merely being GIVEN at Sinai, the Torah was actually REPEATED at this momentous place.

In consequence of continual transgression, the moral Law was repeated in awful grandeur from Sinai. Christ gave to Moses religious precepts which were to govern the everyday life. These statutes were explicitly given to guard the Ten Commandments. They were not shadowy types to pass away with the death of Christ. They were to be binding upon man in every age as long as time should last. These commands were enforced by the power of the moral Law, and they clearly and definitely explained that Law.

Christ became sin for the fallen race, in taking upon himself the condemnation resting upon the sinner for his transgression of the Law of God. Christ stood at the head of the human family as their representative. He had taken upon himself the sins of the world. In the likeness of sinful flesh he condemned sin in the flesh. He recognized the claims of the Jewish Law until his death, when type met antitype. In the miracle he performed for the leper, he bade him go to the priests with an offering in accordance with the Law of Moses. Thus he sanctioned the law requiring offerings.

Christians who profess to be Bible students can appreciate more fully than ancient Israel did the full signification of the ceremonial ordinances that they were required to observe. If they are indeed Christians, they are prepared to acknowledge the sacredness and importance of the shadowy types, as they see the accomplishment of the events which they represent. The death of Christ gives the Christian a correct knowledge of the system of ceremonies and explains prophecies which still remain obscure to the Jews. Moses of himself framed no law. Christ... whom God had appointed to go before His chosen people, gave to Moses Statutes and requirements necessary to a living religion and to govern the people of God. Christians commit a terrible mistake in calling this Law severe and arbitrary, and then contrasting it with the gospel and mission of Christ in His Ministry on earth, as though he were in opposition to the just precepts which they call the Law of Moses. (Review and Herald, May 6, 1875)

The fact that the power doing away with YHWH's Law on Earth is really the enemy of souls is made plain in Scripture. In Daniel 7:25, we were warned that an anti-Christ power would rise to challenge the Rulership of the Almighty. In so doing, this Little Horn power would attempt to change YHWH's Law, and specifically would attack His Holy Days. Look at Daniel 7:25 in various translations:

NEW KING JAMES VERSION: "He shall speak pompous words against the Most High, shall persecute the saints of the Most High, and shall intend to change times and Law. Then the saints shall be given into his hand for a time and times and half a time."

REVISED ENGLISH VERSION: "He will hurl defiance at the Most High and wear out the holy ones of the Most High. He will have it in mind to alter the festival seasons and religious Laws, and the Holy ones will be delivered into his power for a time, and times, and half a time."

NEW REVISED STANDARD VERSION: "He shall speak words against the Most High, shall wear out the holy ones of the Most High, and shall attempt to change the sacred seasons and the Law; and they shall be given into his power for a time, two times, and half a time."

NEW LIVING TRANSLATION: "He will defy the Most High and wear down the holy people of the Most High. He will try to change their sacred festivals and Laws."

AMPLIFIED BIBLE: "And he shall speak words against the Most High [God] and shall wear out the saints of the Most High and think to change the time [of sacred feasts and Holy Days] and the Law."

Clearly Paul, who preached after the Cross, didn't believe that the Law of YHWH or His Feasts were done away with at Calvary. Nor did he believe that the Feasts of YHWH were only meant for the Jews. Paul taught his Gentile converts, the Philippians, how and when to keep Passover & Unleavened Bread? Paul kept this feast with the Philippians as is recorded in Acts 20:6. The Philippians were Macedonian Gentiles.

At Philippi Paul tarried to keep the Passover...The Philippians were the most loving and truehearted of the apostle's converts, and during the eight days of the feast he enjoyed peaceful and happy communion with them. (Acts of the Apostles, p. 390)

Ellen White also believed and taught that the Feasts of YHWH were to be kept by the End-Time saints. Specifically, she mentioned the importance of keeping the Feast of Tabernacles. But, she also said that if the Children of Israel needed to keep YHWH's set appointment times, as listed in Leviticus 23, YHWH's End-Time People need to keep these holy Feast Days even more.

The forces of the enemies are strengthening, and as a people we are misrepresented; but shall we not gather our forces together, and come up to the Feast of Tabernacles? Let us not treat this matter as one of little importance, but let the army of the Lord be on the ground to represent the work and cause of God in Australia. Let no one plead an excuse at such a time. One of the reasons why we have appointed the camp-meeting to be held at Melbourne, is that we desire the people of that vicinity to become acquainted with our doctrines and works. We want them to know what we are, and what we believe. Let everyone pray, and make God his trust. Those who are barricaded with prejudice must hear the warning message for this time. We must find our way to the hearts of the people. Therefore come to the camp-meeting, even though you have to make a sacrifice to do so, and the Lord will bless your efforts to honour his cause and advance his work.

Will our brethren not come up to the Feast of Tabernacles? How zealously should everyone guard the way that leads to the city of God! If we treat the work as an indifferent matter, and the army of the Lord is not on the ground to represent the cause and work in New Zealand, God will not be pleased with your neglect, (Manuscript Releases, #11, p. 9)

Let all who possibly can, attend these yearly gatherings. All should feel that God requires this of them. If they do not avail themselves of the privileges which He has provided that they may become strong in Him and in the power of His grace, they will grow weaker and weaker, and have less and less desire to consecrate all to God. Come, brethren and sisters, to these sacred convocation meetings, to find Jesus. He will come up to the feast. He will be present, and He will do for you that which you most need to have done. (Christian Service p. 197 – 194)

The forces of the enemies are strengthening, and as a people we are misrepresented; but shall we not gather our forces together, and come up to the Feast of Tabernacles? Let us not treat this matter as one of little importance... (Bible Echo, Dec. 8, 1893)

Anciently the Lord instructed His people to assemble three times a year for His worship. To these holy convocations the children of Israel came, bringing to the house of God their tithes, their sin offerings, and their offerings of gratitude. They met to recount God's mercies, to make known His wonderful works, and to offer praise and thanksgiving to His name. And they were to unite in the sacrificial service which pointed to Christ as the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world. Thus they were to be preserved from the corrupting power of worldliness and idolatry. Faith and love and gratitude were to be kept alive in their hearts, and through their association together in this sacred service they were to be bound closer to God and to one another.

In the days of Christ these feasts were attended by vast multitudes of people from all lands; and had they been kept as God intended, in the spirit of true worship, the light of truth might through them have been given to all the nations of the world.

With those who lived at a distance from the tabernacle, more than a month of every year must have been occupied in attendance upon these holy convocations. The Lord saw that these gatherings were necessary for the spiritual life of His people. They needed to turn away from their worldly cares, to commune with God, and to contemplate unseen realities.

If the children of Israel needed the benefit of these holy convocations in their time, how much more do we need them in these last days of peril and conflict! And if the people of the world then needed the light which God had committed to His church, how much more do they need it now! (Testimonies for the Church, Vol 6, p 40-41).

Paul, the other Bible writers, Elder Crosier, and Mrs. White all agreed that obedience to the Law of YHWH, including keeping His Feasts was a vital part of sanctified living. It has always been so, in every age. And nothing has changed. The counsel to Spiritual remains:

Therefore purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, since you truly are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover was sacrificed for us. Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth, 1 Corinthians 5:7, 8.

If the annual feasts were all nailed to the cross, then what does October 22, 1844 mean...since it was proclaimed as the Day of Atonement that year? (OVER 1800 YEARS AFTER THE CROSS!) Just an exception? What about the outpouring of the Latter Rain at Pentecost? Just an Exception? What about when Christ comes in the clouds of glory at Tabernacles? Just another exception? No dear ones! Crosier was absolutely right. The Cross was just the BEGINNING of the END! May you all be blessed as you continue to search out His Truth (Malachi 4).

FAQ's About the Spring Retreat

Passover (April 18, 2011) & Unleavened Bread (April 19-25, 2011)

WHERE WILL THE LIGHTED WAY MINISTRIES' SPRING RETREAT BE HELD?

We are hosting this coming Festival at the Noah's Ark located at 411 NW Safari Rd, in Winston, Oregon. Noah's Ark is located across the street from the entrance to the Winston Wildlife Safari near Roseburg, Oregon. Follow the signs to the Wildlife Safari and look for the giant boat with the 60-foot rainbow. Take exit 119 when coming on I-5 and follow the signs to the Wildlife Safari. (For more information about this facility or its location, visit their website at: www.noahsarkwinston.com).

IS THERE ANY COST FOR ATTENDING THE RETREAT?

This retreat itself is absolutely free. A freewill offering will be taken up during the Sabbath to help Lighted Way Ministries with rental fees, food, and other retreat expenses. At these opportunities, attendees may give as they are able.

There are two optional tours offered through-out the week with entrance fees: The Wildlife Safari Tour and the Noah's Ark Wilderness Sanctuary Tour. The fees for these tours are $16.00 per person for the Wildlife Safari Tour and $5.50 per person for the Sanctuary Tour. Both tours will involve our group being guided through by a live tour guide. For the Wildlife Safari, we will be taking the park tour bus through together.

There will be a retreat bookstore, with Lighted Way Ministries' Materials which will be opened between meetings (during non-Sabbath hours) at the feast. There is also a sizable Christian bookstore at the Noah's Ark facility. Retreat attendees will probably want to bring extra funds to take home some of the wonderful materials and study resources offered in these bookstores.
