Which classification will you be in fall 2014?

- ☐ First-time freshman
- ☐ Transfer – entering the beginning of my sophomore year
- ☐ Transfer – entering the beginning of my junior year

What are you most excited about as you prepare for Cornell?

What are you most concerned or anxious about as you plan to come to Cornell?

Although we know that it may change, what is your current area of interest within the Department of Communication and why?

Why did you choose Cornell?

Why did you choose to major in Communication?

What type of profession are you hoping to pursue with your degree in Communication?

Please tell us anything that you feel will help us to get to know you better. This will help us in assigning you to a Faculty Advisor that has similar interests. You can include anything from career interests, hobbies, places you have traveled, goals, research interest, hometown, internships or anything else that you believe would be interesting for us to know about you.

Have you visited with someone in the Department of Communication already (Cornell Days, Prospective Student Visit, etc.)? If so, who did you meet with?

Freshman Only:

Please list any College-Level or AP coursework that you believe you have that will need to be reviewed by CALS. (For AP – List Course and Score, if you have not taken the test yet, just list the courses that you plan to take the tests for soon).

Transfer Only:

Please list your spring 2014 coursework below (even if you do not have grades yet).

 Any students that have a College-Level Communication course, need to email those syllabi to alp232@cornell.edu ASAP so that we can review them.*
