Civic Action: Thinking it Through
As people work to address problems, they educate themselves about the issues and contin	wally set and reset goals
As you attempt to solve a problem, you'll need to stay informed about it. Use your knowled plan. And be prepared to change your course of action along the way.	·
Use this form to gather information about your issue and set some goals. You might than once if your goals and strategies change.	use this form more
Don't forget to save this form with a new name using the "Save As" co If you need some help with this form, go to the CAP web site (www.crfcap.org) in the S
Name:	Date:
What problem, issue, or policy are you working on?
What's the goal? What would you like to see happen?
You'll take civic actions to move toward this goal. Educating yourself about the problem. What do you need to know before you take your next steps? (Background/history, cause/e support/oppose your position on this issue, etc). List questions you need to have answere find answers.	effect, effects of problem on society, who might
Figure out how you will store the information you collect. Maybe a file folder,	log, portfolio, electronic storage, etc.
What is your next civic action? Be specific, like "call to find out, search the web to find" What's the purpose of this action?
When do you expect to complete this civic action?
Teacher Reaction Date: Looks good, move Please come see forward! Please come see understand more about:	Long-term goalPolicy implicationsWhat you need to know/ResourcesShort-term goal