

Your Prospective Research Proposal

for JUSST Students at UEC (for graduate students)

Form RP

ALL exchange students have to take research proposal or individual scientific study project during their studies at UEC. This is a template for your prospective research project or individual scientific study project. Please prepare this document up to 6 pages and attach it with your main application.

1. Student name
2. Name of home university
3. Country
4. Name of research supervisor at your home university
5. Clear research title on (which area of study), (on what), (how) and (what for)
6. Research sub-title (for potential aspects, not the detailed explanation for the main title)
7. Keywords & key phrases
8. Aim of this research project
9. Original motivation of this research project
10. Expected results & future objective of project (long goal)
11. Expected results for short-goals (your targets & goals during your prospective study at UEC)
12. Outline and summary of project and procedures
13. Main principals & methodology, approaches of project and investigation
14. Evaluation policy and methods how you can assess your progress and results in this research project
15. Your background, knowledge and current status for this prospective research proposal
16. Statement why and how you could contribute with this research proposal at UEC
17. Statement what is the benefit for UEC and UEC professors to host you with this research proposal
18. Further comments
19. Reference

(Go to the next page)

Prospective Research Proposal

Form RP (Page)

Name: _____

Home University Name: _____ Country: _____

(Use this space below and/or attach additional sheets you may have prepared.)