Thanks

- * Thank you so much for the flowers, cards, visits, and prayers during my stay in the hospital. Thank you for your continued prayers as the babies were still in NICU. We have a wonderful church family. We feel so loved and blessed. Please continue to remember our precious baby girls in your prayers.
Shawn, Lynette, Madelyn & Ella Reeves
- * Thank you so much for your generosity. We are very grateful for the used eyeglasses you sent for use by our medical mission team to Zambia.
- * The flowers the church and Friendship class sent while I was in the hospital were lovely. I also want to thank you for the many visits, cards, prayers and the food after I returned home. Your prayers and concern have been a large part of my fast recovery.
Nancy Mayfield
- * Thank you for the beautiful Bible you gave me on Senior Sunday. I appreciate all of the support and encouragement you have given me through high school. Thank you for thinking of me. Janice Rainwater

Sermon Notes

Confronting Rebellion
1 Samuel 15

An aside question:

Exodus 17:8-16; Deuteronomy 25:17-19

The central thought is found in two words: _____

1. Confrontation is never _____
(15:12-33)

2. Check your _____
(15:35; Ephesians 4:15)

3. _____ the confrontation
(15:11; Proverbs 25:11, 15:1)

Missions

Remember to pray for our missionaries and for World Bible School. Also they would love to hear from any South Plains member. The May Mission Moments brochure is available in information centers.
