TERMINOLOGY

"BASKET" - A container with a handle, in form of a basket, any material.

"BLOOM" – Any bud showing color will be considered a bloom.

"COLLECTION" – An assemblage of a number of kinds and or varieties of flowers, fruits or vegetables in one exhibit. This does not signify the greatest number only, but quality, variety, difficulty of culture and effectiveness of arrangement will be considered.

"KIND" – Shall be used to indicate plants whose general leaf and fruit characteristics are similar and that belong to the same genera (i.e. sweet peas, pansies, snapdragons.)

"SIDE BRANCH" – A lateral Branch, or portion thereof, with subsequent branching, but with the main stem excluded.

"SPIKE" – A flower structure with flowers stemless on a common lengthened stalk. Used sometimes where stems of the individual flowers are very short (i.e. gladioli, snapdragons.)

"SPRAY" - The terminal portion of a stem with side branches each bearing a bloom (i.e. ployantha or floribunda rose.)

"STEM" – Commonly used to describe a portion of a plant with side shoots or side branches (i.e. clarkia, phlox, and salpiglossis.) Flower stems should be straight and firm, of good length and well furnished with foliage.

"VASE" - A container, usually at least as tall as broad, if not with a relatively small mouth or opening.

"VARIETY" – Shall be plants within the kind that differ from one another in one or more special characteristics (i.e. Bright Butterfly and Floral Carpet are both varieties of snapdragons.)

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Any exhibitor paying $5.00 or $15.00 per family before 10:00pm on the Friday prior to the set date of the Fair shall be a member for the year. Only members shall be allowed to waive the Exhibitor Fee, with the exception of those exhibiting in the School Work section. Each exhibitor shall pay an entry fee as set out in the Fair Book. All exhibitors that have not paid a membership fee will pay an exhibitor fee of $2.00.
2. Livestock must be bona fide property of the exhibitor. Exhibitors may be required to make a declaration to this effect.
3. All exhibits, other than livestock, sheaves, cleaned, threshed grains and forage for feed must be grown or manufactured by the exhibitor.
4. No animals shall be allowed to compete in more than one section of a class except herds, saddle horses, specials or sweepstakes.
5. All precautions will be taken by the Nokomis Agricultural Society for the health and safety of exhibits and persons at the Fair. The Nokomis Agricultural Society Inc. undertakes no liability for loss, damage or injury and all precautions will be taken within the Society's ability.
6. The decision of the judge will be final in all cases. Judging standards are available from the secretary.
7. No person shall be allowed to interfere with the Judges or, by any means whatever, impart undue information while in discharge of their duties. Exhibitors so interfering will forfeit all right to any prize to which they might otherwise be entitled. The director in charge of any particular class has full power in the management of that class during the time of judging, except judges, director-in-charge and persons handling such stock.
8. In the event of any animal or articles being entered in the wrong section of its class, the judge shall have the power to order the entry to the proper section of its class.
9. Horses must be on the grounds by 8:30am and all other animals no later than 12:00 noon the day of the Fair. Any exhibit removed before 5:00pm, with the exception of horses and cattle, will thereby forfeit the right to any prize. All sheep must be unloaded and put into pens unless special permission to the contrary is obtained from the director in charge. All exhibits must be in the Recreation Centre by 11:00am on the Friday prior to the set date of the Fair.
10. All bulls must have rings in their noses or a bull lead. All colts, fillies or young horses must be properly secured to prevent the possibility of an accident.

11. No article shall be admitted with name, mark or initial thereon with the exception of Classes 27 and 28. Hobbies and handicrafts that have been initialed, marked or signed will be accepted in these cases providing exhibitors completely conceal such initials, marks or signatures so that no name is visible to the judge.
12. No person shall act as judge in any class in which he or she is an exhibitor.
13. The first prize ticket or ribbon shall be red, second shall be blue, third shall be white, and fourth shall be yellow or green.
14. Articles on display shall not be handled except by the officer having charge of the department to which they belong.
15. Any infringement to the rules and regulations will be punished by withholding the prize, expulsion from the Society, or both.
16. The Directors shall have the power to postpone the Fair or any part thereof, through stress of weather, or for any reason they may deem sufficient.
17. All homemade articles shall have been handmade within two (2) years of show date. Any article may only be exhibited for one (1) year.
18. No exhibitor shall be allowed to enter two (2) of the same articles, except stock.
19. Any exhibitor shall, if required by the Board, make a statutory declaration that the exhibit(s) made by him/her are shown in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Society. In case the exhibitor refuses to make such declaration upon request, all premiums awarded to him/her shall be forfeited.
20. Any animals shown as "registered" must be accompanied by registration papers.
21. If any article or animal, in the opinion of the Judge, is not worthy of a prize, the decision of the Judge shall be final.
22. Directors in charge of any department shall have power to disqualify any exhibit for non-compliance of any rules.
23. Entries may be made in person, by mail, phone, fax or proxy.
24. Mail, fax and in-person entries will only be accepted on an Official Fair Entry Form.
25. All cans, wrappers, sales slips, etc. required for specials must be handed to the directors at the door of Recreation Centre along with the exhibits. These will not be returned.
26. All directors will be available at 5:00pm sharp the day of the Fair to return exhibits to exhibitors or their agent. Exhibitors must not remove exhibits themselves without permission of a director.
27. The Secretary's decision will be final in any disputes or infringement of the rules.
