Developing a Response to a Learning Target

This template is provided for teams to use when discussing how to plan their response after a common formative assessment. For each learning target assessed, the team should plan what they will do for students who need more support to meet the proficiency target or extension to go beyond the proficiency target.

Learning Target	Planned Response
Proficiency Target
Simpler Content for Target	