

Three Concerts and a Recording

The 2011-2012 Concert Series of St. Andrew's Memorial Presbyterian Church

June of 2012 will mark the fifth birthday of our Casavant opus #3864 organ. From the perspective of the Congregation's 121st anniversary, it is a mere child, but we feel that the occasion needs to be recognized.

In addition to these three performances, there are plans to release the organ's first recording. This CD will include a number of performers involved in its inaugural concert series in 2007/08.

Saturday, October 22, 2011
7:30 p.m.

SOUND HARBOUR QUINTET

This up-and-coming wind ensemble, lead by local oboist, Helen Graham, has been building a reputation for its original programming and quality performances that include not only classical favourites but also folk music and dance tunes. The October performance is in response to requests of a number of our church members.

Saturday, January 14, 2012
7:30 p.m.

RAPHAEL TAMBYEFF, Organist with WILLIAM FINDLAY, Cello

Although an unusual name, that of French organist, Raphael Tambyeff is one that is gaining local recognition. Between his Paris commitments he has made a number of visits to the GTA presenting concert programmes on the organs of such churches as St. Paul's, Bloor Street, and Yorkminster Park Baptist Church. For this concert he again pairs with renowned Toronto cellist, William Findlay, for a varied program of music for organ and cello.

Saturday, March 17, 2012
7:30 p.m.

JAMES BAILEY, Organist and the CHOIR OF ST. ANDREW'S

While our congregation is very proud of its Scottish ancestry, there are very strong ties between the music of Scotland and Ireland through the Celts. On the occasion of the Feast of St. Patrick, James Bailey, Organist and Director of Music of St. Andrew's Memorial Church, is proposing a programme of music for organ, choir and solo voice which celebrates this tradition.

The Recording: Recording sessions will be taking place during the spring, with release of the CD in June, 2012 (organ's fifth birthday!)
